THE DECATUR DAILY REVIEW

FORTY-THIRD YEAR—NO. 58. DECATUR, ILLINOIS, MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 27, 1922. 12 PAGES—PRICE THREE CENTS

ROADS REQUEST FEDERAL AID

Would Make Extensive Improvement in Present Equipment and Tracks.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Finance applications filed today with the Interstate Commerce Commission, included an application from the receivers of the Denver and Salt Lake railroad for a government loan of $6,500,000 and a request of the Maine Central railroad for authority to issue $331,000 in six per cent bonds.

The commission announced it had authorized the Illinois Central to assume liability for the payment of $3,225,000 in equipment trust certificates which have been sold to purchase new rolling stock.

WOULD CUT TUNNEL.

The Denver and Salt Lake in its application announced it intended to use its loan, if granted, to construct a six mile tunnel through the Rocky Mountain divide, which the line crosses 177 miles west of Denver.

The Maine Central plans to use $250,000 of the proceeds from the proposed bond issue as deposit with the government as security for loans, while the balance will be utilized in reconciling the accounts between the railroad and the railroad administration arising out of government control.

LOWER GRADE.

The receivers for the Denver and Salt Lake railroad in arguing for grant of the loan declared the proposed tunnel would eliminate "grave and serious difficulties," which they now have to face in operating a railroad which climbs to 11,600 feet above sea level. The tunnel, they said, would allow them to reduce the highest elevation on the railroad now to 9,190 feet and would eliminate 27 miles of four per cent grade over which their locomotives now have to climb in winter with rotary snow plows in front every day to maintain operations.

If the money is granted the receivers added, the line can be completed to its projected terminus at Salt Lake City and a coal field estimated to contain fifty billion tons of bituminous coal, can be adequately served.

INCREASE TRAFFIC.

The receivers estimated that the lower operating charges and the increased efficiency attained by a long tunnel at the summit would result immediately in an increase of 200 per cent in the traffic. Also a very large area of Colorado now without railroad service and much of it government land, the application said, would be made available for settlement.

OFFICIAL BLAMES GERMANY FOR WAR

Believes Wilhelm Has Suffered Sufficient Punishment.

London, Feb. 27.—Responsibility for the world war was placed exclusively on German shoulders by Philipp Scheidemann, former German chancellor, in a lecture before the students' association at Copenhagen, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph. Scheidemann said he believed the former emperor had been sufficiently punished but he admitted that if Germany had been victorious, William naturally would have become a demi-god instead, he was demanded as a victim by the whole nation.

The former chancellor contended that if the democratic parliamentry majority resulting from the German elections in 1912 had been followed by a democratic government the war possibly might have been averted.

MINE FATALITIES SHOW DECREASE

Washington, Feb. 27.—Fatalities at coal mines during January declined about 28 per cent from January a year ago, according to an announcement today by the bureau of mines. The total last month was 146 against 197 last year. Based on an estimated coal production of 43,955,000 tons last month, the death rate was 3.32 per million tons mined, compared with 4.13 for January 1921.

Compared with the accident record for January, last year, there was a reduction last January of 13 fatalities in West Virginia, eight in Kentucky, 7 in the bituminous mines of Pennsylvania, four in Wyoming, three in Indiana and three in Iowa. Alabama showed an increase of five, and Ohio two. A reduction of seven is shown in the number killed at the anthracite mines in Pennsylvania.

LITTLE ITALY KING KILLED IN GARAGE

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 27.—Angelo Ferrari, 37, wealthy Italian boodsman, known as the "King of Little Italy" was shot and killed late last night by two unidentified assassins in a garage at the rear of his residence. A bullet fired from a revolver entered his right temple passing through the brain. Four other bullets took effect in his body.

Immediately afterward neighbors saw two men running through a vacant lot north of Ferrari's residence.

RADIO NOW BELIEVED ANTIGONISH "SPOOK"

Halifax, Feb. 27.—The proximity of radio stations is the latest explanation of Antigonish county "spooks" which have driven Alex MacDonald and family from home and baffled investigators. Fire underwriters are discussing suggestions that the mysterious fires have been due to electric phenomena caused by the powerful wireless stations at Glace Bay. Several other families in Antigonish county are now reported to have been driven from their homes by mysterious fires during the last dozen years.

Inquiries received here indicate a small army of American newspaper men is preparing to follow Dr. Walter Franklin Prince, director of the American Institute for Scientific Research, who has accepted an invitation to undertake an investigation of the mystery.

LABOR WOULD HAVE WINES AND BEER

Ask Repeal of Volstead Act; Claim Failure.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Repeal of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act and substitution of a measure permitting sale of light wines and beer was urged Sunday by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor in a statement which called upon all citizens to join with the labor organization in a campaign with these objects in view. The statement denounces the Volstead act as "a social and moral failure" and "a dangerous breeder of discontent and contempt for all law."

"Before this decision was reached" the council's announcement said, "there was caused to be made an exhaustive investigation of the Volstead act. It was shown by this investigation that there had been:

PROBE DISCLOSURES.

"A general disregard of the law among all classes of people, including those who made the law.

"Creation of thousands of moonshiners among both country and city dwellers.

"Creation of an army of bootleggers.

"An amazing increase in the traffic in persons and deadly concoctions and drugs.

"Increase in unemployment.

"Increase in taxes to city, state and national governments amounting to approximately one thousand million dollars per year."

The federation did not protest against constitution amendment embodying the prohibition policy, the statement emphasized, but considered the Volstead act "an improper interpretation of the amendment" and stood instead for "reasonable interpretation in order that the law may be enforcable and enforced."

FAMINE FRIGHTENS SOVIET RUSSIA

Genoa Delegates to Seek Big Loan.

[By the Associated Press]

Moscow, Feb. 27—The Soviet delegation to Genoa will carry instructions to grant all concessions demanded, provided a big reconstruction loan can be obtained. If this loan cannot be arranged, then, from the Russian point of view, the conference has only the moral value of recognition of the present government.

REALIZE SITUATION.

The basic reason for this attitude is the famine. It is only within the last few weeks that the leaders of the Soviet have realized just how desperate is the food situation. So long as the famine starves to death the peasants and the remaining bourgeoisie, though it be on a scale of millions, the Soviet leaders are untouched and rather indifferent.

CONDITIONS WORSE.

But the famine is now slowly but surely encroaching and enlarging on their stronghold; Moscow—and Soviet representatives, sent to every part of Russia for food, report there is less and less to be had, that beginning with March the favored Red army will begin to starve, and that each succeeding month will be worse until July, when harvests, more or less scant, may relieve the situation.

BECOME FRIGHTENED.

The frightened attitude of the Soviet is shown by its daily changing attitude towards the American relief administration when the Americans first came, in September, they were received with scant courtesy; but with each month they have been better treated, until now they are not permitted, but asked, to direct food supplies.

STORM REGION IS AGAIN OPEN

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 27—Wire and rail communication with the district affected by last week's ice and snow storm was being gradually restored today as the result of strenuous efforts on the part of the repair gangs and huge snow plows working day and night. As reports began to come through from the storm stricken area today, it became apparent that the northwestern part of the lower peninsula was hardest hit.

VOLGA DISTRICT CLEANS UP DEBRIS

Devastated Region Now in Better Condition.

Garber, Iowa, Feb. 27—Residents of Elkport, Garber and Osterdock along the Volga river in Clayton county were busy today cleaning the mud and debris from their homes as a result of the flood of Wednesday and Thursday.

The situation in Garber and Elkport had improved vastly today. Food and clothing were rushed to the stricken towns by automobile from Edgewood and Strawberry Point, banishing the fear of a food shortage which loomed Friday.

Conservative estimates placed the damage to property between $100,000 and $125,000, with no loss of life reported.

SWELLED BY RAINS.

Swelled by heavy rains the Volga river began rising Wednesday morning. Streets along the river front in Garber, which had not recovered from a fire which wiped out the business district two weeks ago were inundated and all telegraph telephone and power lines were lost. The power line from Elkport, which serves both Garber and Elkport, was out of order Wednesday night leaving both towns in darkness.

The flood waters began to recede Thursday morning leaving huge cakes of ice strew in the streets of the towns. The flood in Elkport was caused by back water while Garber was directly in the path of the swift current.

Rail service to the towns was resumed early today when a temporary bridge was built across the river.

Telephone communication has not been restored.

4TH ANNIVERSARY OF RED ARMY IS HELD

Splendor of Czar Reflected in Review.

[By the Associated Press]

Moscow, Feb. 23.—Soviet Russia Sunday celebrated the fourth anniversary of the creation of the Red army, Leon Trotsky, the war minister, in the Red square of the Kremlin, reviewed the Moscow garrison in what was probably the largest review since the days of the emperor.

For two hours, infantry, lancers, cossacks, gunners, engineers, motor corps, tanks and airplanes passed in the bright sunshine. The men appeared to be in good condition, were well uniformed and saluted in snappy fashion as they filed past the stand. A little more precision in alignment, gayer uniforms, better horses and older soldiers and they might have been the regiments of the old guard passing before Emperor Nicholas. Yet they were as different from the tattered undisciplined Red army of 1918 as the Concord farmers of 1776 were from Gen. Pershing's picked battalions.

MIDDLE STATES IN ART RENAISSANCE

New York, Feb. 27.—The Central and Western States are undergoing renaissance in art, Lorado Taft, Chicago sculptor declared Sunday in an address at Memorial services for Solon Hannibal Borglum, sculptor, who died last month.

Mr. Taft said the greatest material evidence of this movement was that art galleries were "blossoming every where, not as cold storage plants for works of art, but as places of inspiration for the talented."

2 DIE AS AUTO GOES THROUGH ICE

Janesville, Wis., Feb. 27.—After repeated warnings that the ice would not hold, James Roach, 38, and Thomas Bartlett, 44, of Harvard, drove out from the shore on the Delavan lake on Sunday morning in an automobile. The ice gave way and the machine and men went down. At noon the body of Roach was found still at the steering wheel of the car. Bartlett had jumped out and was caught under the shelf of ice.

On the bank stood the father of Roach, aged 70, who had accompanied the party to the lake to fish. A crowd of skaters told the men that they were in danger, but they scouted the idea. One of the searchers for the bodies, Glen Hollistor, who has a cottage on the lake shore, while he was working, was informed that his cottage had burned.

NEW DREAD DISEASE THREATENS ANIMALS

Washington, Feb. 27.—Domestic animals are threatened by a new dread disease which causes death in from five to 71 hours according to a bulletin issued by the Public Health service. Efforts are being made to produce an antitoxin. The description of the disease carried by the bulletin conveys little information to the layman.

"The existence has been demonstrated," the bulletin says, "of an aerobic organism producing a soluble toxin which affects animals in a manner similar to that of the botulism organism but which fails to be neutralized by polivantent botulinus antitoxin."

Woman Suffrage, 19th Amendment, Constitutional

Justice Brandeis Gives Opinion of Court; Challenging Suit Is Dismissed For Want of Jurisdiction.

Washington, Feb. 27. — The woman's suffrage, or nineteenth amendment was today declared constitutional by the supreme court.

The supreme court dismissed for want of jurisdiction the suit brought by Charles S. Fairchild of New York, who sought to challenge the constitutionality of the amendment.

The opinion of the court was delivered by Justice Brandeis.

The women suffrage or Nineteenth amendment to the constitution was challenged in the Supreme Court in proceedings instituted by Charles S. Fairchild of New York, for himself and in behalf of the American Constitutional League, to enjoin the Secretary of State from issuing and the Attorney General from enforcing a proclamation declaring the ratification of the amendment, and by Oscar Leser and other citizens of Maryland, constituting an organization known as the "Maryland League for State Defense." The former proceedings were based on the ground that the amendment had not been validly adopted, and the latter that the amendment was unconstitutional.

RULE AGAINST OBJECTION.

The Federal courts in the District of Columbia and the State courts in Maryland, where the cases, respectively, were originally brought ruled against the objections to the amendment. In the oral arguments in the Supreme Court in the Fairchild case, the government contended that the Secretary of State having issued the ratification proclamation there was nothing to restrain, and that the case therefore became moot, not presenting a controversy for judicial decision. In the Leser case, the government acknowledged that the proceedings had been instituted by voters who had sufficient interest to warrant their presence in court, but that the issue raised was political one for decision by Congress or for settlement in some other avenue than by adjudication in the courts. While the State of Maryland had refused to ratify the amendment, it was pointed out the State also refused to question its constitutionality.

POWER ASSAILED.

The power of Congress to propose the amendment to the State legislatures for ratification was assailed by its opponents on the ground that the people reserved to themselves in their State constitutions the right to regulate suffrage, and that the Federal government legally could not have anything whatever to do with changing the "sovereign power" embodied in suffrage qualifications.

"The people were not setting up an amending agency for their own destruction," the opponents contended asserting that in limiting Federal jurisdiction the "sovereign people" did not intend that their agents conducting the Federal Government should have the power to destroy them. Following this line of argument it was argued that the people alone by amendments to their State constitutions or by a constitutional convention called for the purpose could extend or abridge their sovereignty.

SENATORS TO TALK REPUBLICAN PLANS

National Executive Committee to Meet in June.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Plans for the Republican congressional campaign will be discussed within a few days at a meeting in which Representative Fess, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, Senator McCormick, chairman of the Republican senatorial committee and Chairman Adams of the Republican national legislative committee will participate.

Chairman Adams made this announcement today while at the White House to call on President Harding, and added that a meeting of the Republican national executive committee probably would be held in June.

SENATE BODY FAVORS TREATIES

Washington, Feb. 27.—Committee consideration of the arms conference treaties was completed today when the senate foreign relations committee ordered favorably reported without reservations, the general Far Eastern and Chinese tariff treaties. In both cases the action was unanimous.

PROMINENT MAN OF BETHANY DIES

A. W. Scott Passes Away At Age of 73.

Bethany, Feb. 27—A. W. Scott, a highly respected and well known citizen of Bethany died at his home Monday morning at 8 o'clock, after an illness of several months, at the age of seventy-three years. His wife died three years ago, and his son, Walter, died thirty years ago.

He leaves a brother, A. B. Scott of Mt. Zion, and a half brother, A. R. Scott of Bethany. For a number of years, he was a prominent merchant in Bethany, but retired thirty years ago.

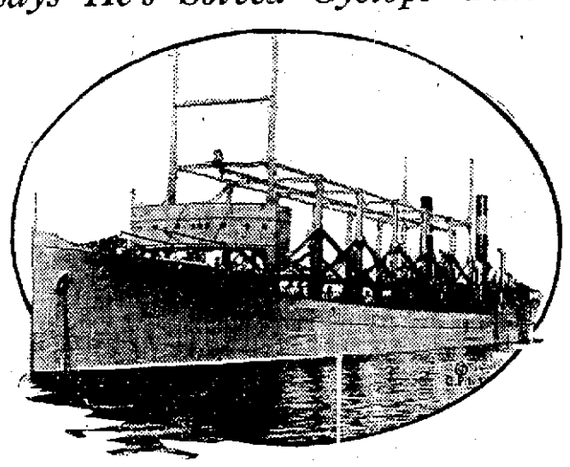

Funeral services will be held at his home at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. J. H. Crowder, a close friend of Mr. Scott.

400 MEN ROUND UP ONE LONE RED FOX

Seymour, Ill., Feb. 27.—Four hundred persons took part in a fox drive Saturday, the line extending between here and White Heath and closing in at the Cresap farm at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. One red fox was captured. It was sold to Oney Cline for $11 and the money will be turned over to the Cunningham Children's home at Urbana.

There will be another fox drive in this locality next Saturday, provided the proposed wolf drive east of Champaign is called off.

Says He's Solved Cyclops' Fate

Lyman Seelye, writer, who lives on an island in Puget Sound, says a Japanese diplomat came to him secretly and gave him the facts about the sinking of the United States collier Cyclops with more than 300 people in March, 1918, an unsolved mystery in naval circles. Seelye says the Cyclops was sunk by an Austrian armored yacht which itself was destroyed in the vortex created by the sinking of the huge collier. Seelye has laid his information before the navy department. The Cyclops is shown above, Seelye, below.

FEBRUARY BUSINESS ACTIVITY IMPROVES

Cleveland Feb. 27—There was more activity in business in February than there was a month ago and indications are that the improvement will continue according to the monthly business review of the Fourth Federal Reserve bank issued Sunday

AUTO HEAD SHOOTS WIFE; CUTS THROAT

Wife Formerly Lived Near Danville.

Miami, Fla., Feb. 27.—Edgar C. Frady, president and treasurer of the Chicago Automobile Sales company, shot his wife, probably fatally, and cut his throat at a hotel Sunday, according to police. Both were taken to a hospital where, it was said their condition was critical.

After firing three bullets into his wife's body, Frady attempted to cut his throat with a safety razor blade. Failing in this, he resorted to a knife to complete the act.

The proprietor of the hotel found the bodies when he was attracted to the suite by the sound of the shots. He told the police that Mrs. Frady was still conscious when he entered and had declared to him that "he did it" pointing to the bathroom where her husband's body lay.

The police reported they were unable to find an explanation for Frady's actions other than that the couple had quarrelled repeatedly during the past two days.

MRS. FRADY FROM DANVILLE.

Danville, Ill., Feb. 27.—Mrs. E. C. Frady was born and reared on a farm in Vermilion county, the youngest of the nine children of the late John R. Thompson, Sr., and was married 23 years ago to a Boston attorney. Several years after her marriage her husband died.

Mr. Frady lost his wife and two daughters in the Iroquois theater fire, and Miss Thompson also attended the theater on the day of the fire. Mr. Frady and Miss Thompson met soon after the disaster.

Relatives here said today they knew of no reason for the tragedy as both seemed to be very happy.

PORTO RICO TO TELL OF REILLY

Resident Commissioner to Talk Before House.

Washington, Feb. 27—The official record of the action of the Porto Rico senate in asking congress to investigate the acts of Gov. Reilly has been started to Washington by steamer and when received will be laid before the house by Delegate Davila, resident Porto Rico commissioner. There was no intimation today as to when it might be presented. Mr. Davila received today an additional message from President Barcelo of the Porto Rico senate which said:

"The governor has appointed the same persons whose nominations had been rejected as soon as the senate adjourned. Great public indignation exists. I am doing everything in my power to contain the despairing attitude of the people, fearing lest it may undo the good work we have just completed. We are all about to lose faith."

200 BANKS FIGHT FEDERAL RESERVE

Ask An Injunction Against Check Dishonoring.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 27.—Trial of the suit brought by more than 200 North Carolina banks and trust companies for a permanent injunction restraining the Richmond Federal Reserve Bank from dishonoring checks drawn on them for which a clearance fee is charged, opened today in Union county superior court at Monroe. A temporary injunction was granted by the court last spring after the reserve bank had insisted on the clearance of checks at par, despite an act of the state legislature authorizing the state banks to charge a clearance fee.

The reserve bank following the passage of the act, which it opposes pointed out that it did not require the state banks to charge exchange on checks but merely permitted them to do so and that such a course was contrary to the fixed policy of the federal reserve system.

FAMOUS ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL THREATENED

New York, Feb. 27.—Fire broke out today in the basement of the Trinity church vestry house, directly behind the historical St. Paul's chapel on Broadway, and quickly spread to the upper floors. Because of the graveyard separating the two churches, the chapel was not endangered. George Washington was accustomed to attend divine services in the chapel.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD BY HOUSE

Washington Feb. 27.—The house held memorial services Sunday for two of its members who died during the last year, William E. Mason, representative-at-large from Illinois, and Samuel M. Taylor of the Sixth Arkansas district.

Representative James R. Mann of Illinois, presided during delivery of speeches eulogizing Mr. Mason.

America Must Stop Flood of Illiterate Immigration

Dr. Graves Points Out Dangers of Failing to Strengthen Incoming Foreign Intelligence and to Stop Wholesale Withdrawals From School.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—America must first stop the flood of illiterey and inferior intelligence from Europe and admit only the foreigners who can strengthen our stock and ideals, Dr Frank P. Graves, president of the University of the State of New York and State Commissioner of Education, said today before the department of superintendents, National Education Association.

"Next," he continued, "we must find some way to stop wholesale withdrawals from school. It is intolerable that thirty per cent of our young people should drop out before they are fourteen and sixty per cent before they have completed the eighth grade. Our compulsory attendance laws and the drag-nets necessary to enforce them must be greatly strengthened in most of our states.

MUST STUDY SITUATION.

"In our judgment it would also be well for the school authorities to study the situation through inviting teachers and experts and see how far the work of the school itself is to blame for the elimination. There is no doubt that the introduction of the industrial element in the upper grades and the establishment of trade schools and technical high schools and secured greater interest and enabled public education to report large numbers, especially those who are stronger in mechanical than in abstract intelligence, or those who feel that they must become self-supporting and responsible citizens as soon as possible.

NORMAL NEED STIMULUS.

"But even when we have rendered this industrial work most efficient broadening the our stasties indicate that there will still be a large body of young persons who do not stay in school because of lack of intelligence. And the needs of these subnormals should be met by some form of continuation or part time work. With their lack of intelligence, it will be impossible for them to appreciate any schooling that does not touch immediate needs and interests. They need the stimulus of the contact with actual work, to get the feeling of reality.

"But much more serious is the situation caused by our failure to select and properly educate the gifted among our young people who have, because of poverty, want of interest, dropped out of school early and gone to work. The selection and training for leadership in a democracy is the most important function to be performed by our public education. Unless we select and train our genius society must slip back into barbarism.

SHOULD FOSTER GENIUS.

"And it is known that we cannot hope to predict from what stratum of society our genius will arise. We must, therefore, seek the most efficient means of detecting and training it wherever it may be found. We have now to a certain extent, succeeded in providing for them through differentiation of the work in the elementary school and in the variety of elections and options in the high school. But in spite of this provision there still remains the problem of furnishing a training for those natural leaders who, through straightened circumstances, or accident of location, have been prevented from securing the education that would develop them best and enable them to accomplish the most for society.

OPPORTUNITIES INADEQUATE.

"The opportunities furnished for them at present in the evening courses, both in extent and variety, are quite inadequate. As a whole, every sort of adult education must be provided by evening or day classes, by long or short courses, and through training adapted to the abilities, interests, and needs of the person not now provided for in the public system. And this must be done, not at the expense of the training of children under fourteen, but through a separate and distinct appropriation for the purpose. Neither phase of our public education can be neglected."

SUPREME COURT TO HEAR HOWAT CASE

To Test Kansas Industrial Court Legality.

Washington, Feb. 27.—When it disposes of its opinions, on reconvening today after its usual February recess, the supreme court will hear oral arguments in cases brought by Alexander Howat and other organized labor leaders in Kansas, held on contempt proceedings by the courts of that state. Howat, who recently unsuccessfully contested at Indianapolis restoration to leadership of the United Mine Workers of Kansas, also questioned the constitutionality of the act of the Kansas legislature creating the court of industrial relations.

In behalf of the union miners' leaders, counsel denied all of the accusations and challenged the validity and constitutionality of the court of industrial relations. This question is now before the nation's highest court.

Supreme Court Findings

GRAIN LAW INVALID.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The North Dakota law regulating grain inspection and purchase was today declared invalid by the supreme court in an opinion read by Justice Day.

SUSTAIN DISTRICT COURT.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The decision of the United States district court for Massachusetts in a case brought by the John L. Whiting-J. J. Adams company against the state involving excise taxes on corporations under the Massachusetts law of 1908, when collected together with income taxes by the state under its act of 1913, was reversed today by the supreme court.

INTERESTING SUIT FILED AT TUSCOLA

Company Resists Collection on Quirk Surety Bonds.

Tuscola, Feb. 27.—A law suit has been filed in the Douglas county circuit court which is an outgrowth or the Arcola State bank affair, and which promises to be of considerable interest. The law firm of Dobyns and Dobyns, and Greene of Champaign, representing the Aetna Life Insurance company, has brought suit to enjoin the stockholders of the Arcola State bank, from collecting on on the surety bonds carried by the Insurance company on Mike and John Quirk, former president and cashier, respectively, of the bank against which the injunction is sought.

AMOUNT $50,000.

The amount involved in the suit is said to be $50,000, and the bank is represented by the law firm of Craig and Craig of Mattoon. Following the crash of the bank failure and its reorganization, it seems that the stockholders have sought to collect on the bonds of the Quirks. The surety bonding department of the Aetna Insurance company claims the bonds were obtained through false representation and fraud on the part of the Quirks, and has declined to settle the claims.

SUNDAY BLAZE

A fire alarm was sounded here at bout eight o'clock Sunday morning on account of the starting of a small fire at the Presbyterian church.

It was discovered before it had gained any headway and was put out before the hose carts arrived.

The Household Economics Department of the Tuscola Woman's club held its study meeting on Saturday afternoon. The subject for lesson study was "Making Good the Promises of Democracy." Three of the assistant leaders responded. Secretary T. E. Judd of the county Y. M. C. A gave an interesting talk on his work in the county.

IN THE CHURCHES

There were the usual services at the Tuscola churches Sunday morning. A union prayer service, arranged and conducted by the missionary women of all the churches of the town is to be held in the North Side Christian church Friday, beginning at ten a. m. and continuing through the day. Lunch is to be served at noon.

At the Baptist church the revival services that have been in progress for a week are being continued. The attendance is good and a good interest is shown. Rev. Mr. Morgan of Fairmount, who is assisting with the meetings, went home for the week-end. The song services at these meetings is in charge of Rev. Mr. Lloyd, the pastor.

PAGEANT

At the Presbyterian church Sunday evening the missionary ladies held their annual praise service, with a pageant by the Light Bearers society. No announcement for any special services during the week were made.

At the North Side Christian church there were no preaching services Sunday being the regular day for Rev. I. M. Hoe, the minister, at Lake Fork, south of Atwood. On next Sunday there will be an all-day meeting at his church in the interest of the Forward Movement. Several out of town ministers of the church are expected to attend this convention. No special announcements for the week.

At the South Side Christian church, the Wednesday evening prayer meeting for this week has been abandoned again on account of the revival services at the Baptist church. On Thursday afternoon the missionary ladies will hold their meeting with Mrs. J. W. Hamilton. Mrs. Tressenriter will be the leader of the lesson study.

No special announcements for the week were obtained from the Lutheran church.

CHANGE DAY OF MEETING.

At the Methodist church, in addition to the usual services of the week the Women's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Alonzo Sturgell Thursday afternoon. Mrs. L. O. Hackett will be the leader of the lesson study, which is the last chapter in the study book. The meeting was changed from Friday afternoon, on account of the conflicting meeting at the North Side Christian church at that time.

CLASS ORGANIZATION.

The members of the Sunday school class of women taught by Rev. Mr. Goodspeed met at the home of Mrs. John Smith Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Goodspeed, Mrs. Brian and Miss Ella Bundy as assistant hostesses. The organization of the class was completed and charter applied for. Officers are: President, Mrs. Mary J. Cooper; vice president, Mrs. A. L. Maris; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. A. L. Houk; chairman of membership committee, Mrs. F. M. Firestone; social chairman, Mrs. F. E. Coykendall; devotional chairman, Mrs. L. K. Irwin.

WILLIAM AMMEN DIES

Word was received here Saturday of the death of William Ammen in Chicago. Mr. Ammen was about sixty-five years old. He was a resident of Tuscola in his younger days and was well known here at that time. It was announced that the funeral party with the remains would arrive here at two o'clock Monday afternoon via the C. & E. I. and would go direct to the cemetery from the train for burial.

Operator Landgrebe of Atwood has been working temporarily the third trick at the C. I. & W. station here, while C. S. Stichner the regular operator has been off on account of the death of his mother, Mrs. Gillogly.

FARM STUFF SELLS WELL.

At the farm sale of Otto Toland, north of Pickrin, held the latter part of last week, the stuff sold well. It was not a big sale, amounting to about $2,000. One team of horses sold for $240.00 and another team for an amount slightly more than that. These were all rather on the pluggy order. Cows sold for from $40 to $70 per head, and some brood sows brought from $35 to $50 per head. The Ladies Aid of the Cartwright church served lunch and were well patronized by the crowd present. Mr. Toland has bought a small farm near Newton and is moving there.

The sale of household goods of George McKeny, was held on Saturday afternoon at the property on Niles Avenue, which he recently sold to R. D. Wangelin. There was a big crowd present and the stuff sold well. Lester L. Smith of Tuscola was the auctioneer, and Dan Baldwin also of Tuscola was the clerk at both of these sales.

FUNERAL FRIDAY.

The funeral services of Bernard Feldkamp, aged 75 and one of the oldest residents of this city, were held from his late home in Walnut street Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. Wintermeyer of the Evangelical church officiating. The united mine workers of the Penwell Local attended in a body. The casket bearers were: A. Kollar, Gus Girrulat, A. Alade, and F. Rabach. The interment was made in the West Mound cemetery.

Miss Florine Stevens, of Princeton, Ind. who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Carroi of South Kitchell avenue, spent the week-end with her grandmother in Mattoon. She will return to this city the first of the week.

The Woman's Relief Corps, Past President's club will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. B. Allen of Kitchell avenue.

Miss Grace Owen's who recently underwent an operation at the Huber Memorial hospital, has recovered sufficiently to return to her home on West Second street.

CLUB MEETING INTERESTING.

The general meeting of the Pana Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. William Moltz, on East Second street, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting was in charge of the Domestic Science department. There were some eighty members of the club present.

Prior to the program a short business session was held, of which the chairman of the department, Mrs. W. B. Jordan, was in charge. Mrs Jordan spoke on the Near East Relief and said that the club had guaranteed to take one of the orphans and to raise the necessary money would have charge of a picture show to be given at the Eagle theater in the near future.

The opening number on the program was a violin solo by Walker White, accompanied by Miss Frances White. Just as the two children had finished their selection there came a loud knock at the front door and when Mrs. Moltz opened the door she found waiting on the step a "culled couple" who were none other than Mrs. Julius Broehl and Aretus Burt, who had come on a "Ceremonial Shopping" visit. At least that was the name of the very clever sketch which they gave before the club members. Both were attired in the most picturesque costumes imaginable.

Mr. McKee sang two beautiful vocal numbers, "Love Song," by Bedouin, and "Absent." He was accompanied by Mrs. O. H. Metcalf. This was followed by a piano solo by Miss Jessie Voght. Then came a short social hour.

The next thing on the program was another very clever sketch "Reform," presented by Miss Helen Welty and Miss Thomas. The sketchis on the very modern woman, who although she put up a very brave front is just a woman at heart.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. M. Baldwin who has been ill at her home on South Maple street is reported as being slightly improved.

T. W. Marling of East Second street, well known Pana man and a veteran of the Civil War who has been seriously ill the past two weeks is reported as being improved.

Miss Ursual Fulda who has been seriously ill with pneumonia is reported as being greatly improved and her recovery is expected.

I. P. Mabry of East Washington street, who has been critically ill with pneumonia is reported as being improved.

Mrs. J. E. Reese of East Second street is reported as improving.

Farmers in this vicinity have reported seeing numerous robins, blue birds and other spring birds the last week. There also were many meadowlarks.

TWO PIONEERS OF SHELBY COUNTY DIE

Mrs. Rachel Foster and J. T. Herrick Taken.

Shelbyville, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Rachel Foster died at seven o'clock Sunday morning at her home on North First street, after several days' illness with pneumonia. Mrs. Foster was eighty-eight years of age on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. She was born in Ohio and married there to John Foster. When they were young people Mr. and Mrs. Foster came to Shelby county and settled in the Prairie Home neighborhood in the northern part of the county. They were among the well known people of that prosperous farming community. About thirty-five years ago the family moved to Shelbyville where they have since made their home. Mr. Foster died in Shelbyville several years ago.

Mrs. Foster is survived by the following children: W. J. Foster of Union Star, Mo., Wesley Foster and Mrs. Jennie Rawlings who live in Kansas, Mrs. Anna Stewart of Freemont, Neb., and N. H. Foster one of the business men of Shelbyville, who with his wife have devoted several years to the care of the mother who has been in failing health for some time. Both of these also are ill at this time.

Funeral services have not been arranged.

J. T. HERRICK DIES.

Jacob Thornton Herrick died at his home on North Second street, Sunday night, after an illness of some weeks with a complication of troubles.

Mr. Herrick was born at Vandalia, Ill., April 19, 1840, the son of Dr. Josiah B. and Antonia Thornton Herrick. His mother died when he was two months old and he was reared by relatives in Shelbyville and educated in the schools here. He began his business career as a clerk in the General Thornton dry goods store, later he became a bank clerk for W. F. Thornton and Son, and remained in their employ for twenty-five years. He was a stockholder of the bank, but about 1890 severed his connection with the bank and practically retired from active life. He inherited a large amount of land from his grandfather and at one time owned two thousand acres. In addition to his land holdings he is a stockholder in a number of building & Loan associations.

Mr. Herrick for several terms represented his ward on the city council, and for several years he acted as city treasurer. He was connected fraternally with the Odd Fellows, United Workmen, Knights of Pythias and the Red Men.

Mr. Herrick married Alice J. Keeler, June 25, 1873, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Keeler. She died in 1894 leaving three children, all of whom survive the father. They are Cadwell, a Catholic priest of Yonkers, N. Y.; William F., and George E., both of Shelbyville.

Mrs. Delos Travis returned to her home in Pana Thursday.

HARDING'S WAR PICTURES LEAVE

Record Attendance At Art Institute On Last Day.

Monday the drawings of Capt. George Harding, which have been on exhibition at the Art Institute, were being packed for shipment. These pictures of many phases of active war service, by this official artist with the A. E. F., attracted many visitors during the month, the largest number on any one day appearing Sunday, the last day of the showing.

During this week a very large collection of water colors, the first showing of that kind ever made by the local art organization, will be hung and it is expected that this exhibit will be ready for inspection by next Sunday.

It consists of about four score pictures by some of America's best water color artists and is sent out by the American Federation of Art.

CHURCH WEDDING AT TAYLORVILLE

Vows Taken Saturday By Young Couple.

Taylorville, Ill., Feb. 27. — Miss Augustina C. Gelonek and Laymonne Calloway were married Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Catholic parsonage, by Rev. Father Jordan. Only the immediate friends of the family attended the wedding ceremony.

Mary Gelonek, a sister of the bride and Forrest Calloway, brother of the bridegroom, attended the couple.

After the ceremony a three course luncheon was served, to the newlyweds and guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gelonek on East Adams street.

The couple left in the evening for Peoria on a short honeymoon trip.

Upon their return they will reside on the bridegroom's farm west of this city, where he already has prepared a home for his bride.

Mrs. Calloway has been employed at the telephone office for several years. Mr. Calloway is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Calloway, who reside two miles west of this city.

THIRD SHOT-FIRER DIES.

Ernest Eggerman, aged thirty-seven, died at the St. Vincent hospital here Sunday morning at 8:45 o'clock, following the mine explosion which occurred here last Tuesday, when four shot firers were fatally injured, Eggerman being the third to die.

He was born in Evansville, Ill., Nov 6, 1886, the son of Everett and Charlotte Eggerman, both deceased.

He was married in 1908 at Pana, Ill., to Miss Daisy Gordon and to this union were born four children, Dorothy, age thirteen, Clifford, eleven, Alden, four and Gordon four months old.

Besides the wife and children he is survived by four brothers and one sister, Mrs. Mary Peare of California, Charles, Fred, and Wilbur Eggerman of Pana and Daniel of this city.

He was a member of the Eagles and Mine Local No. 2518. The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but will be held in Pana, Ill., and burial will be in the Mound cemetery ten miles west of this city.

AMERICANS ATTACKED IN RUSSIAN CAPITAL

Officials Assist Them to Homes.

[By the Associated Press]

Moscow Feb 27—J B Murray of Woburn, Mass, connected with the American relief administration suffered a slight flesh wound when fired upon in the street early yesterday He was accompanied by A C Callahan of Fall River Mass

Whether the shot was fired by a highwayman or by street patrols who misinterpreted the actions of the American has not been determined

Murray and Callahan were homeward bound from a concert when they saw a sleigh ahead of them halted the occupants with their hands in the air

MAKE ESCAPE

Thinking it was a holdup and they would be the next victims the Americans jumped from their sleigh and ran Several shots were fired at them one hitting Murry who however was able to continue running and reached a nearby house where a crowd quickly gathered

Neither one understands Russian but they succeeded in making the patrols who quickly arrived understand that they were Americans and they were assisted home

American relief administration employes familiar with Moscow are inclined to the theory that street patrols had halted the sleigh ahead of the Americans and fired at the Americans to stop them for investigation

TO THE PUBLIC

The Jewish War Relief Drive Starts Today—

FEB. 27 TO MARCH 5

The Jewish Relief Committees of America are caring for 250,000 orphans in Eastern and Central Europe RIGHT NOW.

Our executives are just entering the Ukraine. They tell us we must prepare to care for 500,000 additional orphans.

Consider this in the light of the fact that in all the Jewish orphanages in America and Canada combined there are but 9,000 children.

What Are We Going To Do With These Children We've Been Supporting?

The Relief Committees are the sole means of sustenance to untold thousands of wandering refugees, Jewish men and women, for the most part very aged, or little children, who, denied refuge, are seeking their former homes.

Will We Abandon Them Or Aid Them Toward Repatriation And Self Support?

Thousands and thousands of sick women, victims of soldier brutality are in the hospitals established and supported by our committees.

We are furnishing the only medicine now obtainable for fighting epidemics of typhus and other dread diseases. We supply the only medical aid given.

Shall We Close The Source Of Supply And Let Them Suffer Or Die?

We have put thousands of Jews on farms, we are furnishing them tools, seeds, we have promised them aid until the harvest. We have done very much—more remains to be done. Not alone temporary relief, but the re-establishing of a self respecting, self supporting people. And right NOW THOUSANDS OF OLD MEN AND LITTLE CHILDREN, NAKED, SHELTERLESS, ANGUISHED, APPEAL TO OUR RELIEF STATIONS DAILY, BEGGING ONLY A BIT OF BREAD, ANOTHER DAY OF LIFE.

SHALL WE DENY THEM?

The ocean does not separate their suffering from us. They are as much our neighbors as though they lived across the street. We cannot escape the consequences of neglect.

What Is Your Answer?

FOOD LESSON No 8

GOOD LUCK in Sanitary Cartons

Jelke GOOD LUCK Spread for Bread is not sold from tubs to be carved out hit or miss by hand and wrapped up

It is sold sealed in sanitary cartons—a much better way and one that maintains the freshness and purity of the food.

Thoughtful dealers prefer to sell cartoned goods. It saves their time and trouble. The customer on the other hand, is assured of fresh goods, free from the contact of hands or dust, and full sixteen ounces to the pound.

For reasons of safety ask for perfectly packed

IT'S NOT ELBOW GREASE BUT SOAP FLAKES THAT TAKES DIRT OUT

Some laundresses wash as if they would rub the very ridges off the washboard—and yet their clothes look grey

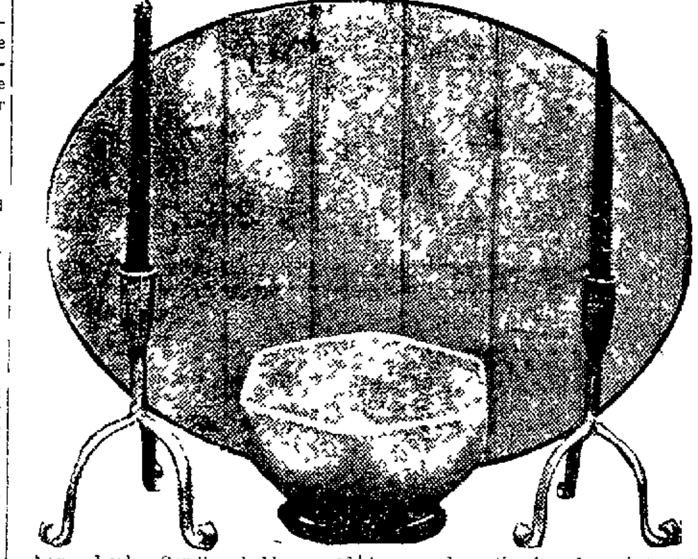

Other laundresses hardly seem to do any rubbing at all—and the clothes come out spotlessly clean and white

The difference is that the latter use science, and science has taught us that it isn't elbow grease but soap fat that takes dirt out.

In Rinso, the scientific balance of soap fats with other cleansing materials has been found. Its almost magical suds just soak out the dirt that your muscles used to have to rub away

When you use Rinso you need do no rubbing except on the particularly soiled places that always do need special attention, and yet your clothes will be as clean as if you had toiled over them in the old back-breaking way.

METAL FRUIT BOWLS AND CANDLE HOLDERS ARE THE LATEST

New York —Candle holders of wrought iron aged looking things are replacing those of crystal to a very great extent Usually they are so designed that they hold a single candle instead of the three or five we have been accustomed to

Heavy luster bowls angular as to top and with broad substantial looking bases are the popular thing for fruits And some clever women whose families are too small to eat a quantity of fruit before it spoils keep the bowls partially filled with very natural looking artificial fruit and only two or three pieces of real fruit

Hot Sandwiches

By Sister Mary.

Try serving hot sandwiches for luncheon They are easily prepared and make use of many a left over in an attractive fashion

These hot sandwiches can be made and then toasted or just the hot filling put between bread and butter

The sandwich may be closed or served open The sandwich that is made and toasted filling and all should be served closed but any other hot sandwich can be toasted as desired

HOT CHEESE SANDWICH

Three quarters cup milk cups grated cheese 1 teaspoon salt 2 eggs ½ teaspoon pepper paprika rounds of toast

Scald milk When very hot add cheese and cook over boiling water until cheese is melted Stir constantly Season with salt and pepper and add the beaten yolks of the eggs

Remove from fire and fold in the whites beaten until stiff and dry Serve as an open sandwich on toast [illegible] with paprika and garnish with sprigs of parsley

LEFT OVER OYSTER SANDWICH

One cup cooled oysters ¼ cup minced cooked bacon ¼ cup minced celery mayonnaise to moisten triangles of hot buttered toast

Mix celery and bacon Add oysters chopped Toss together and add mayonnaise to moisten Put between triangles of hot buttered toast and serve The oysters may be fried or creamed and drained from the sauce or any cooked oyster

HOT HAM SANDWICH

Broiled ham squares of hot toast spiced sauce

Have the ham cut not more than one-quarter inch thick Cottage ham can be used Broil lightly first on one side and then on the other Put between squares of toast and pour over the sauce

SPICED SAUCE

One cup boiling water 1 cup grape juice or 1½ cups boiling water ½ cup cider vinegar and 1½ cups brown sugar ½ cup brown sugar 1 teaspoon ground cloves 2 teaspoons cinnamon ½ teaspoon mustard ½ teaspoon pepper 1 table spoon cornstarch

Add grape juice and the one half cup brown sugar to boiling water Bring to boiling point and add cornstarch dissolved in a little cold water Add seasoning and boil till clear It will take about 10 minutes to boil the dressing

TOASTED SARDINE SANDWICH

Split sardines and remove bone Sprinkle with lemon juice and a tiny bit of paprika Put between thin slices of bread and butter Press firmly and toast in a very hot oven or under the flame first on one side and then on the other

A delicious sandwich is made by spreading white bread lightly with butter and using a filling of thinly sliced American cream cheese

Pin these together with toothpicks and dip each sandwich into one egg beaten with one cup milk seasoned with one half teaspoon salt and one quarter teaspoon paprika Do not let the bread become saturated with the egg mixture Saute the sandwiches in butter and bacon fat

The bread crisps on the outside and is deliciously creamy inside

D. H. S. SENIORS WITHOUT PLAY

Chicago School Wanted Admirable Crichton.

That the Decatur high school was not the only one to be disappointed in not securing the J M Barrie play The Admirable Crichton was discovered recently at the high school. It was found that the Nicholas Senn High of Chicago, had made an attempt to obtain the play and had also been informed that the production had been withdrawn from amateur presentation The Chicago school had, however not reached the stage that the Decatur High did in trying out members for the cast

No definite reports have been made yet to the seniors since there have been no plays received from New York It is required that the high school send a deposit to that city before the plays can be read over and then one selected As soon as the sample manuscripts reach the local school they will be examined and the play to be given by the Class of 1922 will be selected by the class play committee

GYPSIES OVERRUN PART OF GERMANY

Berlin—North and East Hanover from Oldenburg to Brunswick have been invaded by an army of gypsies traveling in bands comprising sometimes 100 wagons and camping in fields and woods They invade the market places in towns and on market days crowd out German vendors

The authorities in the several communities are taxed beyond their resources to control these hordes and prevent them from beating the Germans in trades at which they are adepts Members of the Reichstag have asked the government what steps were to be taken to drive out or control the unwelcome guests

ARE RICH

Where they have come from the authorities do not know but many of them are rich travel in state in luxurious wagons equipped with rich oriental rugs and fine furnishings and ice boxes in which there are always supplies of good wines liquors and costly champagnes

Many of these gypsy bands have adopted modern European apparel, but the women cling to the quaint and picturesque original costumes The young girls are beautiful,

Communities through which the invaders pass usually are cleaned out through trade purchase or theft although it is next to impossible to fix crimes upon the gypsies.

FIRST GERMAN SHIP DOCKS SINCE 1914

Hoboken N J Feb 27—The first ship of the North German Lloyd line to come into New York harbor in eight years steamed up the bay Sunday and received a rousing welcome from German clubs and organizations and the city officials of Hoboken Hoboken turned out to welcome the Seydlitz without regard to nationality or prejudice because in the years before 1914 the German line's traffic brought much prosperity to the River street district

Side Effects Popular

BY MARIAN HALE

New York Feb 2 —Hats have taken tremendously to side effects! One sees on a tour of the smart shops and smart avenues scarcely a chapeau which doesn't wear a pompom a huge flat bow or a tassel at the side Vastly swagger are these side effects

This Idaire hat of black crepe edged with fine milan braid, dares an exceeding sweep at the side and accentuates it with a feather ornament which quite touches the wearer's shoulder Tassels of silk and feathers which reach to the shoulder or venture below are quite the thing this season

The black crepe de chine which takes on some of the characteristics of the tricorne slants a bunch of cellophone grapes over one eye!

The Tebo[illegible] model the inevitable tam pulls its entire crown over the right eye and then to rather balance the thing and escape a too rakish air it flirts an ostrich tip at the side

Modern "Maid of Athens" Studies Law To Understand Women's Rights

Athens—If Lord Byron were to sing of the maid of Athens today it is quite probable he would modify his poesy Instead of—

Maid of Athens ere we part
Give oh give me back my heart —

he would probably be writing for the latest legal brief to see if there were any chance for an attachment suit

IRENE MANO.

RICHEST HEIRESS

The most modern Athenian maid is not only the richest heiress in the Hellenes but she is perhaps the most advanced and exceptional young woman in Europe.

How many heiresses to millions, only daughter of a house with a family tree the most ancient in Greece—would voluntarily take a little studio in Athens and burn the midnight electricity pouring over law books?

Miss Irene Mano has done that

Little Miss Mano is just 20 and she began her legal studies when she was 17 When she calmly made the announcement that she was leaving the vast Mano estates in Crete for a simple studio in Athens all Athenian society as well as her immediate family was astounded The thing had never been done before I wanted to study law because I intend to understand thoroughly the rights of women I think the day of woman is at hand here in Greece as well as elsewhere Just because I am my father's daughter shouldn't make me a parasite

All the more reason for my studying law A woman who inherits property ought to know something about looking after her own affairs

But my real inspiration in studying law is a desire to really know the legal status of women and—well there are laws that some day will be changed

HOPES TO INSPIRE

I hope I will inspire other girls to take up professional careers I have very little interest in the frivolous side of life At the university there are eight other girls studying from necessity I am the only one I guess who has taken up the study of law from pure personal desire

Miss Mano speaks English and French as perfectly as she does Greek She is also proficient in German and knows some Rumanian

"I'm ambitious to go to America and study in an American university" she said

JOSEPH DRAKE

'When I say that I weigh twenty-five pounds more than I did a short time ago it speaks volumes for the merit of Tanlac' said Joseph Drake, 430 Belmont Ave Springfield Mass

The first thing Tanlac did for me was to give me an appetite and tone up my stomach It wasn't long before I was eating things I hadn't dared touch for years and anyone to see the hearty way I eat now would find it hard to believe that a few weeks ago I was dyspeptic and living on the blandest kind of diet

Another good thing Tanlac did for me was to drive the rheumatism almost entirely out of my system In fact I can truthfully say it has made me feel like a new man in every way It certainly is a grand medicine

Tanlac is sold by the Quaker Drug Co and by leading druggists everywhere

CHAPTER I

"WHY Frank You're back again and safe The young woman in mourning held out her hand to the chauffeur My aunt wrote you were a prisoner in Germany

It's fine to see you Miss Fay returned the chauffeur They turned us loose after the armistice He hesitated I—I'd like to say miss that we all felt something terrible—the servants I mean—when the news came about poor Mr Tudo

He shut the door and climbing in behind the wheel drove down the village street Fay's soft blue eyes had blurred at the reference to her brother but she winked back the tears determinedly

Sandy Cove was one of the most exclusive of summer colonies and Fay looked at the superb estates which had once been so familiar with a sense of bewilderment Everything seemed just the same just as she had remembered it and yet there appeared to be a subtle intangible difference Could it be merely her nerves again those wretched overtaxed nerves which had driven her from her reconstruction work in France?

She leaned forward impulsively

'My aunt and cousin they are both well Frank?

Yes Miss Fay

Fay sat back once more Dear Aunt Clara Her uncle's widow was as close to her as her own blood and Laurel her cousin had been like a little dark eyed vivacious sister

The car swirled up the driveway and halted before the steps of the wide porch upon which a slender white clad figure stood

Fay had only time to note that the piquant face seemed as childishly naive as ever before her cousin folded her in a tense embrace

'Oh Fay Fay' I thought that transport never would get in

'Laurel dear Fay kissed her warmly and mounted the steps to meet the gracious figure advancing toward her

Mrs Tudor was fully seven and looked even five with the delicate under irregularity of feature which just escapes actual beauty Everything about her was pretty her blond hair and soft blue eyes and the rose leaf skin which was innocent of the slightest line Her still girlishly slender figure moved with a slow rhythmic grace

Later, during the meal Fay studied her aunt and cousin covertly

It seemed there was a strained note in Laurel's vivacity which betrayed a nervous tension

She was puzzling over it when the girl remarked

'You haven't asked about any of the old crowd Fay Now that the men are back it is like the old Sandy Cove again

Mr Clayton and others are staying at the Country Club

Mr Clayton? Fay glanced up quickly

Yes One of the dollar a year men in Washington

He has been magnificently generous Fay's eyes glowed I shall be glad to see him again

Mrs Tudor glanced across the table at her niece and smiled

He's quite the same as ever she said Plays abominable bridge and talks shop

Oh mother only abuses him because he is as insane about her as ever Laurel laughed but there was a nervous little quiver in her voice as she hurried on Jack Hu tington is at the club—and Harry Cadmus'

She drew a quick breath as she mentioned the last name and her face seemed to burn into her countenance but Fay inwardly responded quietly

Is he?

Harry Cadmus Fay actually had forgotten his very existence for more than a year How heartbroken she had fancied herself when the big test came and he had frantically pulled wires to obtain an assignment at home rather than face the hazards of active service' With what hot scorn had she parted from him And now it was with difficulty that she could conjure up a fleeting impression of him

Mrs Tudor rose Fay I did not mean to touch upon your brother's death so soon after your return but I think you may be glad to know that Wilbur's friend brought all his things to us and they are in his old room now The key is on your dresser

It was Captain Warren who brought them? Fay asked Did you like him?

We did not even meet him We were up in the Berkshires when he came By the way I fancy we shall have a crowd from the club for tea

Please Aunt Clara Fay protested you will let me escape won't you?

But they will be so disappointed Laurel exclaimed Seeing them in such an informal way will be easier than if they all paid stiff calls of condolence If you put off meeting them there will be talk

Why? Fay demanded

Well they'll think it queer of you' Nervous breakdown is such an elastic term—

'Laurel means dear that they will think you are really ill when all you need is a good rest Mrs Tudor interrupted smoothly

Fay passed her hand over her eyes I am a little tired I think I shall rest for a while if I am to meet these people later

Fay's tired nerves relaxed in the dim quietude of the room which she was to share with Laurel.

As she picked up her hand mirror for a glance at her hair, a key on the dressing table caught her eye and she put the mirror aside The key to Wilbur's room'

Taking up the key she made her way to the one closed door down the hall and unlocking it paused upon the threshold

Her eyes strayed to the mantel and with a little exclamation of surprise she drew nearer to it

A hand grenade a tin hat and a gas mask Then all at once she recalled what her aunt had said—that Captain Warren had brought Wilbur's things home She touched the helmet with tender reverence and took up the gas mask but the dark stains upon its case made her recoil and the full horror and desolation of her loss swept over her

She returned to her own room to remove the traces of her emotion in the determination to take up her life again among those carelessly happy people below as soon as she could

As she came down the stairs a few minutes later a man standing in the hallway came quickly forward

Oh there you are Clara I heard voices out on the lawn and was just about to—

He paused as the girl advanced and held out her hand

How do you do Mr Clayton I am I so very like my aunt? I am complimented

Miss Tudor The newcomer recovered from his surprise and shook hands cordially When did you return?

'Just this morning Do you know I feel like a dancer who suddenly finds herself out of step? Fay smiled Silly isn't it?

No I don't think it's silly he responded You've been living under such high pressure that this seems unreal as though you were looking on at some pleasant memoried comedy on the stage

'Yes that is it Fay exclaimed I want to talk to you Clayton urged suddenly Do you know I haven't yet got over the shock you gave me just now I can never quite realize that you are actually grown up even when I read about

IT WAS A WELL DRAWN FACE WITH DISHEVELLED HAIR

the citation from General Petain

We heard about you too over there Fay seated herself Our unit was at the very last of its resources when your train loads of food came

'I am glad it was of service Clayton paused

'Well upon my word Mrs Tudor's voice sounded from the doorway When did you arrive then? I'm glad you found Fay but you've kept the whole crowd waiting for ages out on the lawn

'I'm sorry Clayton rose

The next hour was less of a trial to Fay than she had feared for after the first flurry of greetings the conversation returned to the current gossip and the girl was content to sit back and look on

That evening after her aunt and cousin had departed with Mr Clayton to a country club dance Fay strolled into the library She extinguished the lights seated herself by the open window and looked out over the sloping lawn to shadows which marked the clump of trees surrounding the tea-house

So it had been Captain Warren who brought Wilbur's things home He had come to see her in Paris on his first furlough after her brother was killed and she recalled him as a tall, self-contained man, with kindly gray eyes She wished that she had been at home here to receive him

With a start her thoughts came abruptly back to the present and she leaned forward Had something moved there beneath that clump of trees?

It must be simply her nerves which peopled the shadows With a shrug she sank back among the cushions and her mind reverted to the captain once more

Suddenly she was aware of a rustling in the shrubbery directly beside the window and without warning a face appeared within a few inches of her own

It was a white drawn face with dishevelled hair and eyes which stared wildly into hers for a moment while she held her breath in surprise and terror

The next instant it had disappeared and there remained only the night breeze rustling through the shrubbery

CHAPTER II

THE next morning when Fay awakened she was ready to laugh at her own fancy of the night before Her overwrought imagination had played her strange tricks since her nerves had given way but never had her visions taken so startling a turn The pallid horror of it and the staring almost maniacal eyes were like nothing she had seen in a human being It could only be the stuff of which nightmares are made

New Twain Anecdotes by Mark's First Sweetheart

INDIANA'S YOUNG GOLFER

Hannibal Mo — Becky Thatcher winsome little schoolgirl in the adventures of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn, known to thousands of Mark Twain readers, is a real living breathing person'

She is Mrs Laura Frazier 86 matron of the Home for the Friendless here She was Mark Twain's first sweetheart

Twain made Mrs Frazier—or Laura Hawkins as she was known as a girl—one of the best known female characters in fiction

Her Tom Sawyer not only has been widely read in America and England but has been translated into almost every European tongue

Mrs Frazier knows more about the youth of Mark Twain—when the humorist actually lived the adventures of Tom Sawyer—than any other living person

Mark and I started going to school the same year Mrs Frazier says He was seven and I was six Our houses were across the street from each other right here in Hannibal

LONG GOLDEN CURLS

Mark had long golden curls hanging over his shoulders He used to carry my books to school every morning and carry them home in the afternoon

'And he'd treat me to apples and oranges and divide his candy with me

'In the winter Mark spent most of his time on the ice I couldn't skate but he always arranged for me to go along

'He used to push me along the ice on a split bottom chair He was a fine skater too—in fact he was good at anything he undertook

'The first time I ever saw Mark was on a hot summer day He came out of his house and started showing off, turning handsprings and cutting capers

His heel hit me and I was thrown to the ground and knocked unconscious I recall hearing the children talking about how scared Mark was

One of Mrs Frazier's most treasured possessions is an invitation to Mrs Laura Frazier, Original 'Becky Thatcher' and Mark Twain's First Sweetheart.

Twain's wedding in the humorist's own handwriting

The invitation says in part

Mrs —— (married name unknown), formerly Miss Laura Hawkins first sweetheart of the within named party 39 years ago Pardon the suggestive figure

In October 1908 Mrs Frazier visited Mark Twain's home at Stormfield Conn and spent a week there as his guest

PROMOTED TO LEADERS.

Several Washington correspondents tell us that Republican leaders are at the front making a little speech to the effect that a protective tariff is the traditional policy of the party, and that unless one is furnished forthwith disaster may be expected in next fall's elections

One is just a little curious to know what leaders are speaking this piece at this time. We who dwell out in the provinces happen onto a good many people these days, and we fail to learn from them that they are worrying themselves about higher tariff duties. If they have worries of this kind they are doing a neat job of keeping them to themselves, which is not always and altogether their healthy habit

Doubtless there are people in Washington making this little speech about traditional policy of the Republican party, but it is suspected they are folks who are planning to reap a direct reward from the imposition of higher duties.

We can understand their feelings and enthusiasm in this matter, but it is not made clear to us just why they should be written down by the correspondents as "leaders of the Republican party." They may cut a swath in that party, as we Democrats sometimes charge, but their promotion to leadership was something of which we were not properly advised at the time it was done When we last heard of them they were still filling their old role, that of going into their pockets and furnishing the means of war

WAY REAL EXPERTS DO IT

In an older day newsgatherers of the Associated Press might have been prosecuted for unholy wizardry, and later burned at the stake We have in mind their way of going about it to determine the exact location of that big explosion in southwest Chicago Friday evening last

Everybody in Chicago was asking just where the explosion had its center, and no one was able to answer. Newspaper offices in the town were throwing up their hands, the problem being too much for them

Associated Press boys quickly solved the mystery. Thirty tons of dynamite had exploded at some edge of Chicago, and it was nonsense to say a thing as big as this could not be run down As no one in Chicago could say where, it was in order to call up outsiders

The Associated Press made inquiry at Indianapolis, only to be referred to LaFayette in Indiana. From the latter place came word as to the exact center of the Chicago explosion, and immediately there was no longer any mystery about it

It was neatly and quickly done, and of course the wizard features of the performance are too many for us. If we knew how, we could start an Associated Press of our own

WRENCH IN THE MACHINERY.

From the White House at Washington comes this observation:

"If this government cannot do things designed to promote understandings and bring nations into accord, without having such things vetoed by congress or the senate, it will be in a very poor position to accomplish anything in the world."

This is the way President Harding is beginning to feel about it, and it doesn't make him happy Likely it is the way President Wilson felt some time ago, and he just about gave up his life in the fight he made to save the day and the world

We are in a bad way as an influence in world affairs if we go into conferences, agree to something, only later to have all agreements and understandings set aside by the senate. Just a few turns of this kind and other countries of the world will begin to feel there is something queer about us, that we seem to be all right but lack responsibility.

We don't want to get into this position; it would be healthy neither for us nor the rest of the world. There is big work to be done and we are called on to lead in this If we are only the wrench that is thrown into the machinery, the world will have to find a way to get things done while leaving us out of the proceedings

WAIT FOR ENLIGHTENMENT.

Concerning the street railway franchise, there is now no occasion for the man in the street to get excited and alarmed and express himself in advance, thus disqualifying himself for service later on the jury.

There is every indication this is a matter that will get able and ample attention It will be studied further by a citizens' committee, after which it must pass muster in our city council A decided majority in these bodies will strive the best that is in them to do the fair thing, which of course means they will come pretty close to doing it.

It is a situation that requires considerable study; and the one who has only an offhand opinion can serve the cause by holding this in abeyance for a little while—it may be that later he will be pleased to change or modify what is now on the tip of his tongue.

Unfortunately too many of us feel we must stick to something just because we have been heard to give it voice, and therefore it may be quoted against us A good way to keep an open mind is not to commit oneself in advance

OUR PART IN THE PLAY.

Andre Tardieu tells the world: France wants to and will pay her debts to the United States We ask only that we be given proper time

This sounds better than word we lately had from France, to the effect the debt would not be paid We are pleased to learn that at least a nation is willing to pay, for otherwise it would be a dead beat

Whether France can and will pay is something else. It is good of Tardieu to say what he does, but about this he can't know surely Payment in this matter is something that depends on ourselves perhaps almost as much as on the people of France

This isn't a debt of a few dollars, it runs into the billions. Just now we are by far the greatest creditor nation the world ever knew. If we be ever paid it will have to be in the goods and services with which payment can be made. We may not have about us enough gumption to manage such payment, may even forbid the goods and services. And then France will not pay, no matter what her good intentions

It takes a large equipment of exceptional ability to manage successfully the role of big creditor; it may be that we don't begin to have it If we haven't it, just now we are out of our class

NO CASTLES IN COLLEGE

We take it that at Northwestern University a man's dormitory or his fraternity house is not his castle It is the place he lives a good part of the year, and maybe he sometimes looks on it as home, but the paragraph of the good old unwritten common law that tells about castles doesn't run for him

Appointed authorities of the school make a search and seizure raid on his dormitory or fraternity house They lock the doors and let nobody in or out, and then they proceed to go through him bag and baggage. They open his trunk and search in his pockets and rap on the walls to discover secret closets

And this is the experience to which Mr. Root and Chief Justice Taft would expose a young man before they would admit him to practise at the bar, before they would consider him fit. Of course they don't insist on this particular experience, probably would a little rather leave it out, but by now they are aware it may be part of the college day's doings.

PUT THE PLUMBER UNDER BOND.

We are glad that George Slanker called at Portland when he was in the western country While there he learned their way of filling trenches that are cut into a pavement, and one can believe it is a way that will do the work.

Portland people haul away all dirt taken out of the trench, haul it off the very first thing. When they are through with any plumbing work done in the bottom of the trench they proceed to fill the opening with concrete, just plain and straight concrete. Their experience is there is no danger of this settling and leaving a furrow in the street.

It is quite likely the thing can be done that way and that it will come up to expectations. But a property owner would be all out of luck if he should live long enough to have to open that trench a second time. We would want the plumber to give bond that he will make no mistake in his part of the work.

NO TRADE IN RUSSIA.

Maximilian Harden tells us there is no trade in Russia. Those in that country who are not in the rigors of famine are desperately poor and seem to have neither tools nor initiative to go ahead and do something to pull themselves out of the hole they are in. It is Harden's judgment that in place of trading with these people the world must go to their rescue.

The only help for them he seems to have in mind is to give them something, give and then give more. It may be that Lenin and his pirates will not last a great while longer, and after they are out of the way it may be possible to do something But now there is no trade.

A broker stung New York society women for $600,000. What a piker lot they must be, in view of the fact that the stockyards district in Chicago was induced to contribute seven millions to the same cause.

Sam Gompers wants us to recognize Mexico as a matter of justice, but Sam's constituents might go back on him if he should ever make a suggestion that is sensible enough to be adopted.

Cheer up; when Will Hays gets on the job he may call in the standing army and suppress 99 per cent of the comics and 100 per cent of the serials.

How do people of this town manage to find time to read 25,000 volumes a month and still never miss a turn at the movies?

A woman in Texas kills a man in a court room, possibly a case of emancipation growing faster than civilization

Mary Pickford's earnings last year were at the rate of $1,950 a day, and they say they paid her in good American money, best in the world.

While lettuce is high Sister Mary suggests that cold slaw isn't bad, and for once we agree that she is inspired.

Three aldermen are to be elected in Monticello and there are twenty-eight candidates, a chance for twenty five people to conclude it is an ungrateful country.

Roads are reported good, to rough, to poor, but we have known them much worse at this time of year.

Ten Years Ago Today In Decatur

FEBRUARY 27, 1912.

Decatur was voted the Rock Island franchise in the Three-I league.

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team again defeated the J. M. U. team, 33 to 18, for the second time

It was announced Mr. Zion won the cup at the Farmers' Institute for the township winning the most ribbons.

Mrs. Jeanette Powers Block of Peoria, former Decatur girl, scored as heavily as in former years with her violin playing in two concerts in the Methodist church here.

Attorney John Hogan was named president of the new Decatur ball club and H. L. Oldham, secretary and treasurer.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

Al H. Wilson was at the Powers theater in "The Watch on the Rhine."

Eggs were down to 25 cents.

S. D. Adkins, retiring secretary of the R. R. Y. M. C. A. was presented with a diamond ring by the R. R. Y. M. C. A. boys.

Little Benny's Notebook

I was mad at my sister Gladdis for diffrent reasons and the door bell rang and I went and it was a man with a baskit full of spools of thred and safety pins and ordneery danger-ous pins and diffrent things, saying Is your mother in?

Wich jest then I had a good ideer, saying, No but my sister is, do you wunt to see her?

Yes, Im not partickler, sed the man, and I sed, All rite, come on in the parler and Ill call her.

O, Ill wait heer, sed the man, and I sed, No, come on in, she don't like to come to the frunt door, she likes to buy things in the parler, and the man sed, Well, if you insist. And he went in and sat down in the parler on the edge of a chair as if he was trying to do a grate balancing trick. Being a skinnie man with a red nose and one eye half shut. And I went up and Gladdis was in her room in her red dressing gown looking at her face in the mirror as if she never saw it before, me saying, Hay Gladdis, theres some man down in the parler says he wunts to see you.

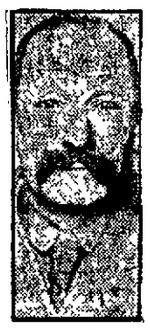

O, who is it, who can it be, dident he give you his name? sed Gladdis, and I sed, No, I dident ask him, and Gladdis sed, O it must be that nice Mr. Macknamara, the bug collector that I met at the dance, he sed he mite drop erround.

Maybe it is, he looks like a bug collector, I sed. Wich he did, and Gladdis sed, O grayshuss and heer I am not dressed, go down and entertane him a second and tell him Ill be down in a minnit And I went down agen and the man was still setting on the edge of the chair, me saying, She'll be rite down, and the man sed. Thank you very much, but are you sure its all rite me being in heer? And I sed, Sure, I told her you was in heer. And pritty soon Gladdis came in looking all ixcited as if she had got dressed in a fearse hurry, and she looked at the man with the baskit on his lap and he tried to sit even ferther on the edge of the chair and had to quick sit back agen on account of that being the ferthest edge there was, and Gladdis sed, Wat is this, a joak? and the man sed, No indeed, I was brawt in heer agenst my will, I dident wunt to come in, I was invited in espeshilly, would you care to buy eny pins or needles or thred?

No I would not, good by, sed Gladdis And the man quick got up and went out, me going out with him so Gladdis wouldent have a chance to do enything to me and then I ran up the street like the dickins so the man wouldent either.

UNUSUAL STORIES ABOUT UNUSUAL PEOPLE

London—Posing as, "Colonel Hanbury Williams," a clever imposter duped large numbers of the British nobility and almost made King George the victim of a confidence game.

The "colonel" rented an estate in the Scottish highlands, adjacent to the estate the king occupied during the hunting season.

Then the bogus "lord" invited many nobles to the estate, making them pay for this chance of meeting the king.

Members of the royal household got wind that something was wrong and did not accept the "lord's" invitation to hunt on his estate. Later the imposter was arrested.

In Two Weeks Falling Hair Stops This New Way

THIS is to offer you under written money-back guarantee, a new and radically different method of scalp treatment

Under clinical tests it grew hair on 91 in 100. It stops falling hair in 2 weeks. It grows new hair with further use. It must do this for you, or your money is refunded. Your own druggist signs the guarantee. So you take no risk.

95% of all hair troubles come from a simple infection—Sebum. Sebum is an oil. In its healthy state, it lubricates the hair. Thus it serves a useful purpose. Frequently, however, it becomes infected. Then you see it in the form of excessive oil, or when it cakes, as dandruff.

It forms a breeding place for bacteria. It lodges in hair follicles and plugs them. Then germs by the millions start to feed upon the hair. Semi-baldness is soon marked. Then total baldness.

Remove this infected Sebum, stimulate blood flow, and the hair will grow. This is scientific fact. Even in advanced baldness the hair roots are still alive. The urge to grow is there.

You can note yourself how hair, lost in sickness or fever, regrows when health returns.

The name of this new treatment is Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage. It is different from anything you have ever seen. You do not rub it in with your fingers. Each bottle contains a rubber massage cap. The nipples are hollow. Thus they feed the lotion right through the hair into the follicles of the scalp. And at the same time give the head a thorough massage.

We know these statements sound incredible. But it costs you nothing if it does not satisfy you. Your own druggist signs the guarantee. Ask him for Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage, made by Van Ess Laboratories, 5007 Lake Park Ave., Chicago, Ill.

WHEN FATHER BROKE HIS ARM.

Pa never gets a story straight.
He's always mixed about the date
Or where it was, or what occurred
Or who related what he heard;
And every time he starts to tell
Some little story he knows well,
Ma says: "No, Pa, as I recall
That isn't how it was at all."

"Remember when I broke my arm,"
Says Pa, "when we were on the farm
And I went out that slippery morn
A few days after Bud was born
To get some wood"—and Ma says then:
"Oh, Pa, don't tell that tale again!
And anyhow, I know right well
Bud wasn't born the day you fell.

"'Twas months before he came," says Ma.
"'Twas after he was born," says Pa;
"I rather think I ought to know
Just when it was I suffered so."
"Maybe you ought," says Ma, "but still,
I saw you tumble down the hill,
And it was March with snow drifts high—
Bud wasn't born till next July."

"I'd walk him round the floor," says Pa.
"You're all mixed up again," says Ma.
"We'll ask Aunt Lizzie, she was there,
She'd come to help." Says Ma; "I swear
You're just as crazy as a loon,
Aunt Lizzie didn't come till June.
To argue on is most absurd,
Bud wasn't born when that occurred."

I wish I knew just what is what
Or whether I was born or not,
But I'll just have to sit and wait
Until Pa gets his story straight,
And I have never heard at all
Just how it was he chanced to fall,
For Pa and Ma can't yet agree
Which one came first—the fall or me

How You Can Enjoy a Perfect Digestion

DR. R. H. BISHOP.

The rate and the comfort of digestion is influenced by the proportions of protein, fat and carbohydrates eaten.

Water passes through the stomach very quickly. Carbohydrates tend to pass out of the stomach faster than proteins and proteins faster than fats.

Mixtures of protein and carbohydrate go faster than proteins alone, but more slowly than carbohydrates. Mixtures of protein and fat, on the other hand, go slower than either alone.

This retarding effect of fat is an advantage to some, a disadvantage to others. The healthy stomach finishes up its work quickly and often gives its possessor discomfort because of its insistance for more food before meal time.

Such people can eat fat foods that take a longer time to digest, especially if they lead an outdoor life.

Less vigorous persons with more sluggish digestions would find fatty foods delaying their digestion unduly; hence we consider such foods hard to digest.

Most people can eat large amounts of carbohydrate foods with ease. There are some persons, however, in whose stomachs carbohydrates tend to ferment very easily, usually as a result of bad mastication, insufficiency of gastric acid or poor muscular activity of the stomach.

Such people need to eat less carbohydrate foods than others and should rely more upon proteins and simple forms of fat for their body fuel.

In general, good digestion depends upon:

KEEPING the whole body in good condition by breathing fresh air;

TAKING suitable exercise;

CULTIVATING cheerfulness;

OBSERVING regular meal times and refraining from foods at other times;

AVOIDING food when greatly overwrought or fatigued, or limiting it to simple, warm, fluid foods;

MASTICATING thoroughly so that food never goes down in large lumps;

PAYING some regard to the retarding effect of fat on digestion and avoiding large amounts of very concentrated or irritating foods.

M. L. HARRY GOES TO INDIANAPOLIS

To Attend Electrical Transportation Convention.

M. L. Harry, manager of the Decatur Railway & Light Co., has gone to Indianapolis to attend the electrical transportation convention which is taking place this week at Indianapolis

The local man went to Danville Sunday afternoon and on Monday went with the other Illinois Traction System officials from there in the special train which the company will put on exhibition at the big show. This train de luxe in electric railroad equipment was finished at the Decatur shops and was taken through the business section here when it started for the Indianapolis capital. The train was hauled from Danville on one of the steam roads to the nearest electric road and then went on its own power into Indianapolis.

COPPER SHAKES OFF ITS SHROUD

Industry Hard Hit At Close of War Is "Coming Back."

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Dead for twelve months, the copper industry has arisen, shaken off its shroud, and on April 1 will give promise of being on its way back to normalcy, according to reports from the copper sections of the country.

War, or rather the end of the war, delivered the temporary death blow. The armistice found the mines with great quantities of copper on hand. Demand suddenly ceased The market collapsed Through a year of general depression the copper industry was among those hardest hit.

RESURRECTION AT HAND.

But the resurrection is at hand. Revival of copper mining on a "cautions" scale to start about April 1 is announced by the Calumet and Hecla company, the Utah Copper company and the Anaconda Copper Mining company. At that time more than a million acres of land will renew their yield of red metal.

Several mines are already operating. Others have started preliminary work to have everything ready for the miners within a few weeks

MANY MEN EMPLOYED.

With all mines operating at capacity—and this is not expected for many months—approximately fifty thousand men are employed in the country's copper mines Montana and Michigan with 20,000 each provide the great majority of work with Arizona and Utah making up the rest. At the time of the shutdown a year ago, however, no mines were operating at near capacity. In 1916 Michigan copper mines employed 20,000 men. This dwindled until in 1920 the number was 7,500. In 1921 the number shrank to 3,700. A similar percentage of employment decline prevailed in other copper fields.

About half of normal production is expected this spring, reports from the four chief copper mining areas indicate.

GENERAL SITUATION

Summarized, the general situation is:

MICHIGAN.

Resumption of work at the Calumet and Hecla company and subsidiary mines the amount of work in the mills and smelters hinges upon the disposal by the companies of their surplus metal. April 1 is expected to see many mines operating, although with short forces. Fifty or sixty per cent normal is the estimated production at the beginning. Six months will be required to build up an organization replacing that scattered following the shutdown.

MONTANA.

Four properties of the Anaconda Copper Mining company resumed operations January 16 of this year after being closed eight and one-half months These mines, together with the reduction works at Anaconda and Great Falls, employ 7500 men. Mines of Montana are working about one-third capacity, according to figures furnished by John Gillie, manager of mines for the Anaconda company.

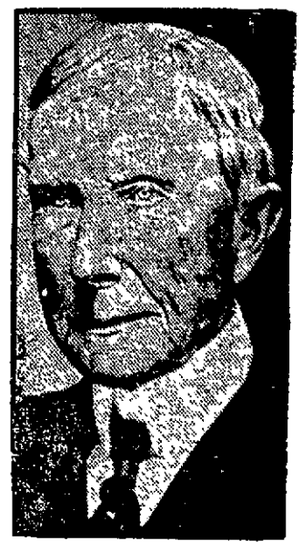

ARIZONA.

Ore has resumed its flow to the Copper Queen smelters of the Phelps-Dodge corporation. The Calumet and Arizona company mines will shortly resume operations on a "cautious" scale, according to Col. J. C. Greenway, general manager. From May, 1921, to the present all Arizona smelting plants have been idle.

UTAH.

The Utah Copper company, closed in the general shut-down, will reopen at a 'comparatively early date," an official of the company declared. During the inactive period only 200 men have been employed at the mines which at peak production in 1918 provided work for 6,000.

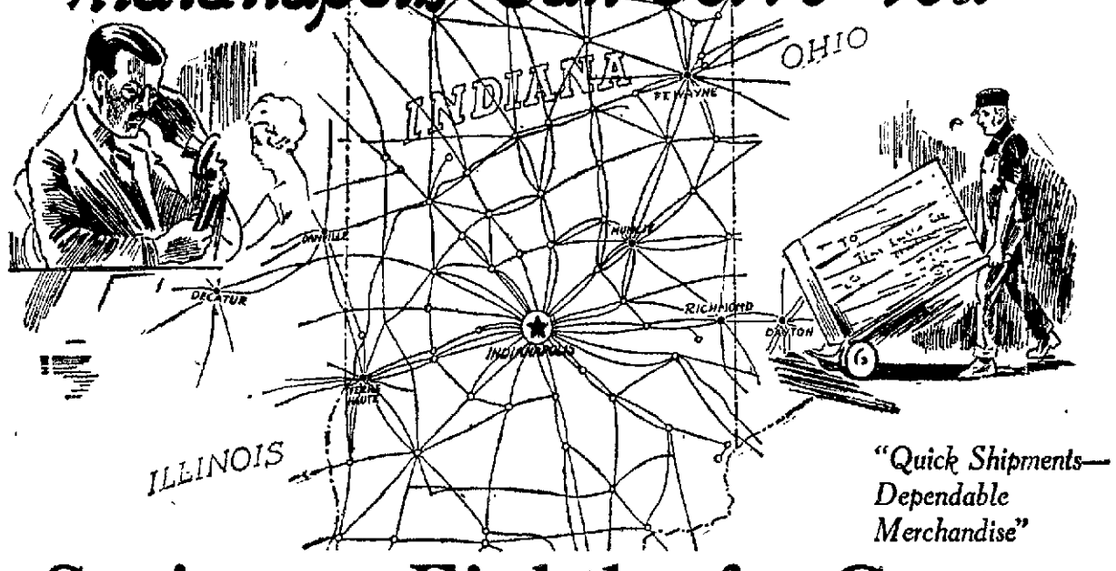

The depression from which the industry is today showing signs of recovering was the greatest it ever experienced.

Before his name is off the front page as grandfather of Mathilde McCormick who is engaged to a humble riding master, John D. Rockefeller breaks in again with a $2,000,000 gift to a London school.

DEALERS!

Indianapolis Can Serve You

"Quick Shipments—Dependable Merchandise"

Saving an Eighth of a Cent

IT DOES not pay to buy goods in a distant market just to save "an eighth of a cent" if the saving is going to be eaten up by higher railroad fares, hotel bills and extra time consumed.

Wherever your logical market is, there is the place to do all your buying. If one city has an advantage over another city in point of freight and express charges, in time required to make delivery, or in a number of other respects that affect the profit you can make in your business, then concentrate your buying in that city.

Indianapolis wholesalers believe that they are best situated to serve you. They know your territory as their salesmen know their order books. They can help you to buy right—the right quantities, of the right goods, at the right time.

Daily through service to the principal points in their territory, usually by both railroad and interurban, enables them to make "first day" delivery by freight and express delivery often the same day.

Indianapolis is nearer to the manufacturing regions of the East than some of the markets which compete for your business. It is also the nearest large city to the center of industry and distribution of the United States. And it is in the actual center of a great industrial region in which a tremendous variety of goods is manufactured. For these reasons it is safe to say that no wholesale center which can compete with Indianapolis in range and selection of stocks has a lower freight bill to add to the cost of the goods in its warehouses.

Fans Association is Anxious to Sign Boss

However, Each Candidate Will Be Given Careful Consideration—Is Important Matter.

BY HOWARD V. MILLARD.

If the officers and board of directors of the Decatur Fans Association have their way the new manager for the baseball club will be selected within the next week.

The committee selected to interview prospective candidates have been busy since the meeting Saturday night. Sunday and Monday found President Jake Hill in communication over the long distance phone with Joe Dunn and Jimmy Hamilton. Other applications are coming in and every candidate is to be given a thorough investigation.

OF VITAL IMPORTANCE.

The selection of a manager is perhaps the most important task the officers and directors of the fans association will have to take care of for much of the success of the club as well as baseball in Decatur depends on the fellow who will be in charge of the teams. Directors know this fact and no half way methods will be employed in getting the right man for the post.

The success of every club in the Three Eye League can be attributed to their manager. Bloomington was successful under Joe Dunn.

Bill Jackson and Jimmy Hamilton gave Peoria good baseball while Earl Mack won a pennant for Moline last season. Johnny Nee who is to pilot Evansville again this season after a sojourn down at San Antonio, Texas is a smart manager as well as a high class player. Bob Coleman the old Davenport catcher who went to the big show gave Terre Haute one of their best years in the Tri Optic circuit last season so that it is absolutely necessary for Decatur to have a high class pilot.

PLAYERS APPLY.

Not only men who desire to be considered for the post of manager of the new Decatur club but players as well have started to write in for a chance to show their wares. Because of this fact the officers and directors desire to have the pilot signed within the next week so that he can begin assembling a club.

As soon as the new manager is signed the fans will then have plenty of the real baseball news to give them an appetite for the opening day. Danville has advised President Tearney that they will put over their drive and the league boss is expected to call a meeting within a very short time for the purpose of posting forfeits and talking schedules.

EVERY BASEBALL FAN HAS A VOTE

Don't forget to send in your choice of a "MONICKER" for the new Decatur Three Eye League team. A number of fans have sent in their letters to the Review Sports Editor and of those who have giv'n the matter consideration the name Starchworkers leads the field. One fan says that the city should continue to receive the publicity from that name made famous over the country by the Staley football eleven the past two seasons. Not a bad idea is it? Another fan wants the team called Decatur Dams in order to give the new dam publicity. Still another says the old name Commodores is good enough.

It's up to you fans. Take a few minutes and write out your opinion as to what name should be given the ball club. It is to be your team and you should have something to say in what it is called about the Three Eye circuit.

CREW ROWS 200 MILES TO SAFETY

St. John, N. F., Feb. 27.—The crew of the Newfoundland fishing schooner Howard Parks rowed 200 miles in an open boat after their vessel had foundered and reached Barbadoes Saturday. Advices Sunday said the vessel had been driven far to the southward by contrary winds before she sprang a leak.

TWELVE SCHOOLS ENTER FOUR MILE

University Relay Race At Illinois Carnival.

Urbana, Ill., Feb. 25.—Entries from 12, representative institutions promise to make the four-mile University relay at the Illinois Carnival, March 4, a hot race from start to finish.

Purdue, Ohio, Notre Dame, Wisconsin, Michigan, Grinnell Kansas, University Drake, Kansas Aggies, Chicago, Nebraska and Illinois have entered teams in the four mile event.

GILL HAS VETS.

The Illinois team is made up of the same veterans who took first honors last year—Captain Yates Patterson, Wharton and McGinnis. Individually, the Illini team averages below 4:35 to the man. Such a crew is going to be hard to beat.

Kansas Aggies, who took second in the four-mile last year, is back with three veterans, Henre, Kykendal and Mathias and should put in a strong bid for first honors this year.

With Finkle and Wall back on the track, Wisconsin, who placed third last season, will be exceptionally strong on this event.

Ohio State has some very good milers in Wikoff and Ferguson.

VALLEY ENTRIES.

The Missouri Valley district has furnished some formidable teams in the past few years, and Kansas University, Drake and Nebraska should put up a hard fight in the four-mile course.

Harrison and Furnas, the latter an Olympic star and a cross-country runner of two seasons, seem to be the mainstays for Purdue. These men run the mile in 4:25.

With such a collection of athletes on one program, the spectators at the Illinois classic can be assured of an evening of thrills and excitement.

FEW BATTERS THRIVE ON REAL SPEED BALL

Walter Johnson Says That A Fast Ball With Good Hop Makes Plenty Of Trouble.

BY WALTER JOHNSON.

What is the best type ball for a pitcher to use?

If a pitcher has a good fast ball, that is always his one best bet.

I don't mean just an ordinary fast ball, but one with a lot of "swift" on it, as Nick Altrock would say.

When I came to the American League I scarcely knew there was anything other than a fast ball in a pitcher's repertoire.

RELIED ON IT.

For three years I used a fast ball entirely, to fool the great hitters of the American League. I really believe I enjoyed my greatest success during those three years.

In those first three years I could just about throw my fast one by the batsman, as we put it in baseball. No pitcher could retain forever the terrific speed that I had when I came to the American League. At the close of my third year I began to realize that I was slowing up a bit.

HAS SUCCESS.

I had been working on a curve ball in the meantime, and when it became evident to me that I was losing a bit of my speed, I began to resort to the curve to cross the batters up.

I met with almost as much success with my curve as my fast one. However, I will always believe that I made a mistake in using too many curve balls, after once acquiring a good "hook."

I am convinced that the wise pitcher who has dazzling speed, holds his curve in reserve. That is what I should have done.

FASTEST IN LEAGUE.

When I switched to a curve ball pitcher, from a fast ball pitcher exclusively, I still had perhaps more speed than any other pitcher in the American League. I should have continued the use of the fast ball, with the curve as a constant threat.

I am sure I would have been a better pitcher had I done so.

BENDER IN NEW ROLE

What becomes of the famous stars of the diamond?

In his day Chief Bender was one of the greatest pitchers in the history of the game.

Bender still dabbles in baseball, but in a minor league way. He is to manage an International League club this year.

While it isn't generally known, Bender is as famous with the shotgun as he ever was with a baseball.

Bender is a crack shot, and is a great devotee of the traps.

For a number of years he has spent as much time on the traps as the ball field. He is an authority on firearms.

In the winter time for a number of years he has been connected with a prominent firearm and ammunition-making concern.

In the above picture Bender is shown in his New Haven, Conn., store disposing of a gun to a customer who is seeking advice. Bender plans to continue in this business when his baseball days are over.

Phil Neer is Rated Best Tennis Player

United States Lawn Tennis Association Awards Leland Stanford Student High Rank.

BY BILLY EVANS.

Phil Neer of Portland, Ore., a junior at Leland Stanford, has been rated as the best college tennis player in the United States.

For the first time in its history, the United States Lawn Tennis Association has ranked the college tennis players. To Neer goes the distinction of being the first intercollegiate tennis champion.

Neer played his first game of tennis 11 years ago. He won that game from another tennis enthusiast of the same grammar school in Portland, Ore.

WORKS TO TITLE.

At 20, Phil Neer has met on the courts of the east and the west the best racket wielders of the younger set and beat them. From a rank outsider in college tennis in two years he has worked his way to the championship.

The success that has come to Neer in his third year in college was not by any easy formula. Nor by any run of phenomenal luck.

Rather, it commenced when he won his first game, and continued throughout his scholastic and college careers. He suffered many a defeat before he finally developed a drive and return service that carried him to the college championship.

JUNIOR HONORS.

His first success was winning the junior boys' championship of the northwest. That was while attending Washington High School at Portland, Ore., in 1917. He continued to win honors in many of the tournaments held in the northwest.

However, it was in 1921 that he put over the big event of his career. In the intercollegiate play held at the Merion Cricket Club courts, Philadelphia, Neer proved the surprise of the tournament.

Rated well down in the list of players, Neer won all his matches and in the finals defeated J. B. Fenno of Harvard.

PLUGGERS.

Neer, in explaining his success on the courts, briefly says:

"The best players are pluggers. They work constantly to develop their strokes. Most of them have attained success by mastering individual styles."

He didn't say he had got there by such methods. Rather he modestly left that for you to understand.

FIELDING TEAM TO PLAY BIG PART

Pitchers Not Doing Work As in Other Years.

By George B. Chadwick.

Special Correspondent of The Review. (Copyright, 1922).

New York, Feb. 27—Ed Barrow, business manager of the Yankees, seized a moment today in the midst of his preparations to get the Yankee training camp show on the rails for New Orleans, to make a sage observation about baseball in 1922. He declared that fielding will play a big part in winning the championship this season. That is a really radical statement if one takes time to analyze it and realize what Barrow is intending to convey.

Every year each good little manager comes out with the announcement that it takes home runs to win games and that if his team only bats to expectations it will be in the first flight of homing pigeons. That is perfectly true, but if every club could do that little thing, the race might result in a general deadlock.

MUCH BACK UP PITCHERS.

Barrow picks on fielding because he believes that some pitchers are rolling down hill in both league and that if they can't do any better than they have been doing it will be necessary for the infielders to come to their assistance. He calls attention to some facts which are interesting.

1. There were teams in 1921 which made a better showing than their pitching strength warranted because they had all-fired good infielders. The Boston Americans, who didn't have anything that be called good batting, were in the thick of the fray, battling for every game. They could not have done that if they had not been one of the best defensive teams in either league.

GIANTS SUPPORTED.

2. Barrow would not say a word about teams in other leagues, but he admitted that anyone could reason by analogy that the New York Nationals might not have done so well had not the pitching staff, which wavered and slipped around received support which made pitchers look like stars of the first magnitude.

3. The chances accepted and undertaken in 1921 were more numerous on the prat of many fielders than in other years. This showed that the pitchers were being hammered and that they were being saved by their fielders who were getting over more ground. The work of Dykes of the Athletics and Harris of Washington showed how much pitchers owed to them.

HITTING FENCES.

4. In the outfield there was some great work on the part of certain players and opportunities for great work on the part of others. The trouble with the outfields in general was that they did not develop to correspond with the batting. The sluggers were peppering the fences with chances but the fielders weren't there as compared with the days of the past.

The point Barrow made is that it is highly important that a team should be well-balanced between fielding and batting. Realizing that it is out of the question to combine everything, however, some managers are proceeding on the theory that they will get as many good fielders as they can especially if their pitchers happen to be a little weak.

FAIR AND WARMER FOR SOX ATHLETES

Texas Rain Lets Up—Manager Gleason Promises Work.

Marlin, Tex., Feb. 27.—All things must come to an end, even a Texas rain, so the three day leak finally ceased Sunday afternoon and the sun peeped through the clouds while the newspapers proclaimed the fact that Monday will be fair and warmer.

White Sox activities Sunday were showers and a long session in the hot baths. Then a big chicken dinner. One way of telling Sundays from other days in the south, is the fact that chicken is served for dinner.

Gleason has mapped out a hard program for this week. "From here on, they work," he declared. Four days of idleness proved irksome to the manager, although he admits his players were benefited to no small degree by the baths.

ANXIOUS FOR PITCHERS IN SHAPE.

The regulars join up later in the week, and Gleason wants to get some of the pitchers in such shape that they can bear down heavily and provide batting exercises for the infielders and the outfielders.

With Johnny Evers on the job to direct the fielders, Gleason plans to pay particular attention to the pitchers. The manager is interested particularly in Leverette, a high hander, and Russell and Davenport, left handers. The southpaws worked during the winter, so they will have every chance to show their worth.

FIRST CASUALTY HITS CUB CAMP

Speed Martin Twists Ankle While Working Out.

Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal., Feb. 27.—The first casualty of the Cubs' spring training jaunt turned up Sunday in the form of a twisted ankle. Speed Martin was the victim. The injury was so severe that the veteran hurler was forced to spend the better part of the day in the solitude of his room.

Speed met up with the mishap while cavorting about the field in yesterday's practice, but the ankle did not begin to cause much trouble until late last night. The ailing athlete may be able to perform tomorrow.

All the boys but Speed enjoyed a spirited drill Sunday morning to check up on the schedule which was delayed by rain.

ROOKIES GET WORKOUT.

The pitchers gave their wings a thorough test and the two first sackers, Cotter and Golvin, as well as Klugmann, a second sacker, were out on the infield, with Manager Bill batting grounders. Hugh McMullen, the Los Angeles semi-pro catcher, also had a hand in this part of the practice and showed some throwing skill that just about knocked the aspiring infielders off their pins.

William Wrigley Jr., principal owner of the club, sailed into port Sunday to spend a few days watching his hired help prepare for the flag campaign. All the players were down at the dock to greet him, and even the natives were on hand to welcome the man whose millions transformed a somewhat run-down-at-the-heel community into a veritable fairyland.

NEER'S IDEA OF A TENNIS PLAYER

He must have:
1. Athletic temperament.
2. Even disposition.
3. Will for consistent work.
4. Endurance.
5. Ability to anticipate shots.
6. Ability to judge flight of ball.
7. Co-ordination of body and arms.
8. Concentration on the play.
9. Willingness to "waste no time" on the court.
10. Confidence, but not over-confidence.

SHELBYVILLE TAKES BAD NEOGA DEFEAT

Winners Close Schedule With 42 to 8 Win Over Opponents.

Neoga, Ill., Feb. 27.—The local high school five closed their regular schedule here Saturday night with a big victory over Shelbyville the final count being 42 to 8 for Neoga.

Shelbyville was only able to break through the local defense for two field goals during the entire forty minutes of play while the speed and good passing of the Kivett machine completely outclassed the visitors. Superintendent Wasson of Toledo officiated the game.

The Screen

Covent Garden, London, is still turning away those come to see Lady Diana Manners in "The Glorious Adventure." London critics acclaim the picture a masterpiece, something new in the cinema world.

The film is done in colors. The critic of the Daily Graphic says of it, "It is like a thousand oil paintings come to life."

The feature of the film that will surprise Americans is the acting of Lady Diana. The popular conception of a noblewoman is that of a woman of dignity and reserve. Stills of the production recently received here show that Lady Diana has forgotten her dignity and condescends to become violently emotional.

GIVE $5,000 TO JEWISH RELIEF

$15,000 Campaign Given Big Start.

HEAR TWO SPEAKERS

Abraham Goldman Tells of Horrors.

Following a graphic description of his terrifying experiences in Russia by Abraham Goldman, recently victim and eye witness of the massacres in the Ukraine, and a stirring talk by Max Korshak of Chicago, subscriptions were pledged by members of the Jewish race at the meeting in the Temple B'nai Abraham Sunday night, sufficient to bring the total thus far up to $5,000, when the campaign for Jewish Relief in Russia was started Monday morning and headquarters established at 320 North Main street.

SPEAKS IN YIDDISH.

Speaking in Yiddish, Mr. Goldman gave a brief but vivid account of the wholesale killing of the Jews in Russia by the bandit tribes; how he himself was stabbed and left for dead, how, when he was lying there two soldiers came along and suspecting he was still alive, were prevented from shooting him because the gun failed to discharge. One-half of the Jewish population of the country, he estimated, had been slaughtered. Disease, famine, and murder, he said, are causing the deaths of others in droves.

He told of the gratitude of the sufferers for American aid, how the addition of a tiny bit of food, or a can of condensed milk was a Godsend. Weeping was general in the audience as he spoke.

GREAT TRAGEDY.

"No greater or sadder tragedy, has ever struck the Jewish people, a race used to persecution and tragedy," said Max Korshak, in his address. "The war brought chaos and misery to the Jews in Russia when their country was crossed and recrossed by German armies fourteen times. Jewish aid must be extended to these people."

Active soliciting was begun Monday morning, and it is thought that the response which will come from the Jewish population of Decatur and their friends among the non-Jews will bring the amount pledged up to the quota of $15,000 within a short time.

"Jews must give, non-Jews may give," is the slogan of the campaign.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

At the Campaign Headquarters, for the Jewish Relief Drive 320 North Main street, it was announced Monday noon that $5,592 had been pledged, and it was the opinion of the workers that the quota of $15,000 would be reached.

The list of contributions of $25 or over, follows:

HORN AND COX TO PENITENTIARY

Plead Guilty to Various Holdups.

George Horn, nineteen, who pleaded guilty to burglary and grand larceny, was sentenced to the Pontiac reformatory Monday morning by Judge J. S Baldwin in the circuit court. Leo Cox, eighteen, who was associated with Horn in robbing a garage, was sent to the Chester penitentiary.

Judge Baldwin said these two boys had been associating together too much and he intended to keep them separated for a long time. Cox, who also held up an oil station with a revolver, pleaded guilty to that charge, so he was given a double sentence. On the burglary and larceny charge he will serve an indeterminate sentence, but the penalty for robbery with a gun is not less than ten years in the penitentiary, so he will have at least ten years to serve on the robbery charge in addition to his other sentence.

FRIEDMAN FAMILY HOLDS BIG REUNION

Relatives Come from All Parts of World.

New York, Feb. 27.—Descendants of Pincus Friedman, who lived in Poland in 1790, left New York today for their respective homes, after gathering here for their annual dinner. Some of them must travel half way around the world before arriving at their destination. The Friedmans, 225 of them, had to hire a big hall for the festivities.

FROM 'ROUND THE WORLD.

The Friedman family circle was organized in 1900. Each year members of the family meet at dinner. For this occasion Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friedman travelled from Melbourne, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Friedman and their daughter from Honolulu; Mr. and Mrs. William A. Friedman from San Francisco and Harry Friedman from Cleveland.

4 GENERATIONS REPRESENTED.

Four generations were at the dinner, the oldest, Pincus Friedman, being 82. Lawyers, bankers, doctors and men engaged in almost every line of business are represented in the family.

SAYS "BUMMING" MEANS OF SUPPORT

Lad from Colorado Taken Into Custody.

Johnnie North, aged less than seventeen years, was picked up by the police Sunday. He ran away from his home in Collinsville, Colo. shortly after the death of his mother last July, and he told Judge J. H. McCoy that he had been bumming ever since. He said this was the second time he had been arrested as a runaway. The other time was in the north part of he state, and he was kept in jail six weeks before they turned him loose. He said there had been no other charge against him.

"There could be a serious charge placed against you, that of being a vagrant—not having any visable means of support," said Judge McCoy.

"That wouldn't apply to me," said Johnnie, "I have visable means of support, bumming."

TAKEN TO Y. M. C. A.

Secretary W. H. Duerr took an interest in the lad, who is a fine looking boy, and Judge McCoy turned the boy over to Mr. Duerr. The latter said he would take him to the Y. M. C. A give him a bath and a good feed and try and find something for him to do. In mean time an effort will be made to get in touch with his relatives.

Scientists Find Remains of Ancient American Race

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 27.—Explorations made by the Peabody museum of Harvard in the Marsh Pass region of northeastern Arizona have resulted in the discovery of the remains of an ancient people who once inhabited that section and were intermediate in development between the basket makers, the earliest race known to have lived in that region, and the Pueblo cliff dwellers, whose remarkable stone villages along the Arizona cliffs have attracted widespread interest.

The Harvard expeditions to this semi-desert region, over 100 miles from the nearest railroad, were begun in 1914 by A. V. Kidder and Samuel J. Guernsey of the Peabody museum staff, and were later continued under the sole direction of Mr. Guernsey. Prior to 1914 commercial collectors had found traces of the basket makers, but facts about these earliest people of the region had never been secured by trained archaeologists until the Harvard expedition began.

PRECEDED CLIFF DWELLERS.

These expeditions have not only contributed a mass of information concerning the basket makers but now show the existence of a people who followed the basket bakers in point of time but preceded the cliff dwellers.

The post-basket makers as these newly discovered people are called, resembled the basket makers in many particulars, but were clearly in a later stage of development. The basket makers had no permanent dwellings, whereas these later people had stone houses in caves and in the open. They also had pottery, crude in some respects, but with the beginnings of decorations, and some of it was fired. This is the earliest pottery known to have been made in the southwest.

Instead of burying their dead in caves, as did the basket makers, they seem to have lived in the caves and to have conducted their burials in the open. Their more settled life is attributed to their success in agriculture. They grew corn of a primitive variety.

SKULLS LONG INSTEAD OF ROUND

Skeletons show that both the basket makers and these successors had rather long skulls, whereas the cliff dwellers who followed them were a round headed race and always had the back of the skull artificially flattened by the hard board head rests of the cradles in which the babies were placed.

The relationship of these various people is still a matter of doubt. It is believed the post-basket makers probably were descendants of the basket makers, but whether they in turn were ancestors of the cliff dwellers is not certain. It seems doubtful on account of the marked difference in the hape of the head, even aside from artificial flattening.

The basket makers had dogs. The mummied remains of two were found during the Harvard explorations and are now on exhibition at the Peabody museum, along with a quantity of other objects illustrative of basket maker life.

REMARKABLY PRESERVED.

Many of the objects found in the dry caves in this region are in an extraordinary state of preservation on account of the dryness of the climate, despite their great age.

How many thousand years ago these primitive people lived in northwestern Arizona is unknown, or how they were related to the Indians of the present day. The scientific study of the region is still in its early stages.

Walls Falling.

C. H. Pierce appeared before the said that he would have the matter city council Monday morning to call attention to what he considered the dangerous conditions which existed about and in the Bowman stable which was recently so badly damaged by fire. He said one wall had fallen into one of his buildings and that others appeared about ready to fall. Commissioner J. F. Mattes, head of the department of health and safety, attended to at once.

FRIENDS FAIL TO SAVE KILLERS' LIVES

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 27.—Strenuous efforts by friends to stay the electrocution of four men condemned to die in the electric chair here next Wednesday have failed to change the attitude of Gov. Alfred A. Taylor, the executive said today. He has made up his mind to let the law take its course, the governor said. Charlie Petre, Otto Stevens, Tom Christmas and John McClure, the condemned men, were convicted in Clinton, Tenn., last July for the murder of George Lewis, Knoxville taxicab driver on May 28, 1921.

2 NEGRO BOYS TRY TO CRUCIFY ANNOYER

Winchester, Va., Feb. 27.—Fletcher Day, colored youth, testified at police court hearings Sunday that he and Charles Mennifield, another colored boy, were responsible for the attempt made on Monday to crucify Harvey Greenwalt, 14 year old white boy.

Mennifield declined to testify. Both youths were held for the grand jury.

Day's excuse for the act was that Greenwalt was one of a crowd of white boys who had "rocked" a crowd of colored boys at a bathing place.

BLOOMINGTON MAN STARVES FAMILY

Authorities Take Charge; Probe Sanity.

Bloomington, Ills., Feb. 27.—Robert A. Schlossher, his wife and three children, Robert, Ellis and Marie, were found starving in their denuded house at 801 Moulton street by city authorities. Obeying what he declared to be the voice of the Lord ordering him to cast out all modern comforts, Schlossher had stripped his house bare of furniture, stove, even tearing out the plumbing and electric fixtures. The entire family obeyed a further behest to abstain from food.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

The three children were taken to the St. James hospital Friday evening where they are under physician's care. The condition of the six year old Marie is precarious, due to the long fasting. Mrs. Schlossher was taken to the county jail and placed in the hospital ward, where she finally consented to take nourishment Saturday morning. Schlossher was taken before Judge Ray Sesler Saturday morning where a commission instituted an inquiry into his mentality. Upon the report, Judge Sesler entered an order committing him to the state hospital at Kankakee for treatment. Schlossher was taken to that institution Saturday evening.

WHEAT PRICES IN CLOSE UNSETTLED

Heavy Profit Taking Reduces Early Gains.

Chicago, Feb. 27—New high price records for the season were attained today in the wheat market. May delivery at the opening jumped to within ½ cent of $1.50 a bushel. The goal to which bulls some time ago had directed their efforts. A fresh advance in quotations at Liverpool was the principal incentive for today's upturn today. Free selling to realize profits ensued. The opening, which ranged from 1 to 2¼ cents net higher with May $1.48 to $1.49¼, and July 1.25½ to 1.27, was followed by a moderate setback from initial top figures.

Later May touched $1.49¾. But the grains failed to hold in the face of heavy profit taking and of snow in the southwest giving further relief from drought. The close was unsettled, 1 cent net lower to ¼ cent advance, with May $1.47 to $1.47⅝ and July $1.25 to $1.25⅛.

Corn and Oats ascended with wheat to the highest prices yet this season. After opening unchanged to ¾ cent up, May 60 to 60½c ,the corn market scored moderate gains all around.

Slowness of export demand led to setbacks in prices later. The close was weak, ½ cent to 1 cent net lower with May 67¾ to 67⅝c.

Oats started ½ cent to 1@1½ cent higher, May 43½ to 44c, and later went further upgrade.

Provisions were lifted in value by the advance of grain and hogs.

STOCK TRADING IS FEVERISHLY ACTIVE

Rail Stocks Gain from 1 to 1½ Points.

New York, Feb. 27.—Trading on the stock exchange today became feverishly active during the morning, the first hour's sales approaching 350,000 shares. Steels resumed their reactionary course of last week, Bethlehem, Crucible, Gulf States, and Lackawanna losing 1½ to 2 points. This was more than offset, however by steady buying of rails; oils, equipments, shippings and prominent specialties.

RAILS MAKE GAINS.

Canadian Pacific, Texas and Pacific, Missouri Pacific, common and preferred, Pere Marquette and Chicago and Alton gained one point to 1½ points. Standard Oil of New Jersey, Mexican Petroleum, General Asphalt, Royal Dutch, Shell Transport Mercantile Marine, preferred and American International rose 1 to ¾ points and Sears Roebuck, May Department stores and California Packing made similar gains. Call money opened at 5 per cent.

The closing was heavy.

NEW YORK SILVER.

New York, Feb. 27—Foreign bar silver 63¾c; Mexican dollars 45½c.

EGGS TAKE NEW DROP IN PRICES

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Cheap eggs for Lent were signalized today by a new drop in quotations. Today's prices showed a fall of a cent a dozen per day for the last ten days. The wholesale quotation for first quality eggs here today was 24 cents, as against 34 cents on the corresponding day a year ago, as well as for ten days back this season.

Mild weather and big receipts were the reason assigned for the decline in the egg market, a decline in notable contrast with advancing values of late for other farm products.

A MATTER OF PHYSIOLOGY.

GRAIN STEADY, HOGS AT $10.25

Eggs Unchanged Although Receipts Enormous At Terminals.

All grain markets were higher Monday but the cash grain followed the advances on futures rather cautiously and no change was made in local prices by station buyers.

What the terminal markets are doing with the vast amount of corn which has been pouring in each day is puzzling the local grain men, and word from Chicago brokers is to the effect that the situation is also causing some worry there. With the possibility of warm weather at any time now and with such enormous stocks on hand the probability of "hot" corn is not as remote as some of the owners of immense quantities of the stored grain wish that it were.

HOGS GO UP.

Hogs continue their upward march, all good stuff offered being quickly taken by the packers. Choice stuff, in the light animals, passed the $10 mark here Monday, this grade now bringing $10.25.

Egg and poultry shippers allowed the prices made Saturday to remain unchanged although the continuance of the enormous receipts is making the egg market decidedly weak. The coming of Lent may give it some strength but shippers are fearing a slump with the advent of spring weather.

Butterfat remains steady.

STEEL MILLS AGAIN APPROACH NORMAL

Many Workers Back on Jobs.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 27.—Several hundreds of thousands of idle steel workers here went back to work today with increased operations in the steel mills of this district. The Trumbull Steel company of Warren, resumed operations on a 100 per cent basis today, the first mill in this district to reach capacity since the depression began. Open hearth steel production today reached more than two-thirds of capacity with the Carnegie Steel company, a corporation plant, operating 14 or 15 furnaces. More bar and plate mills are running than heretofore, with both plate mills of the Brier E. Hill Steel company going at capacity. Fabricating plants also report better operations. There is no change in the blast furnace production.

MUSCLE SHOALS BIDDERS TESTIFY

Present Optional Property Rights Claim.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Officials of the Alabama Power company appeared before the house military committee, which is conducting hearings into the proposed sale of the government's nitrate and power projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., to present their claim to optional rights on certain portions of the property.

Thomas W. Martin, president of the company, and F. D. Mahoney, its commercial manager, were the principal witnesses.

NOT CONSULTED.

Mr. Mahoney testified that no representative of the government of the army or of Henry Ford had taken up with the company the question of its property rights at Warrior, Alabama."

"That statement shows," S. H. Dent, counsel for the company said, "that the company has had no opportunity to express its views before the decision was made by the chief law officer of the army, holding that the contract was 'null and void'."

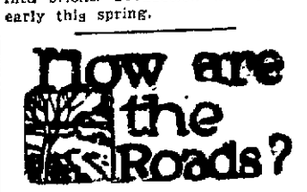

GOVERNOR REFUSES JUDGE'S RESIGNATION

Okmulgee, Okla., Feb. 27.—Interest in the situation growing out of the recent dismissal of a grand jury investigating the affairs of the defunct Bank of Commerce here, by Superior Court Judge H. R. Christopher, took a sudden spurt today with the making public of a letter from Gov. J. B. A. Robertson, sent yesterday to the judge, declining to accept the latter's resignation. No word had been received from the judge who is believed to be in Chicago. Judge Christopher offered his resignation after being requested to do so by citizens at a mass meeting soon after the dismissal of the jury.

In his letter, Gov. Robertson upheld the judge in dismissing the grand jury, saying that to have let it render a report would have made more difficult a quick settlement of the bank's affairs.

PEAT FUEL TO BE MANUFACTURED SOON

CLUES FAIL IN TAYLOR MURDER

Los Angeles, Feb. 27.—Practically all other leads in a solution of the killing of William Desmond Taylor film director here on Feb. 1, have failed, the police declared today as they prepared to concentrate their further efforts on a search for Edward F. Sands, Taylor's missing former butler-secretary.

It was planned to assemble new data on Sands, including even his mannerisms, it was said, and to compile a special bulletin for distribution to practically every peace officer in the United States. The police frankly state they believe Sands can supply a clew to Taylor's slayer.

Police Sergeant Jack Stelzreide was said to have gone to San Francisco to search for a woman to whom telegrams bearing on the Taylor case were reported to have been sent from here the night of the murder and the next day.

MARY RECEIVES MANY PRESENTS

Princess and Lascelles Greet Visitors.

[By the Associated Press]

London, Feb. 27—Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles spent the last morning before the wedding receiving a number of individuals and deputations whose offerings swelled the vast collection of gifts which is already overflowing the state rooms of Buckingham Palace. To each visitor bringing a present the princess expressed her thanks. During the past fortnight she has voiced dozens of these acknowledgements daily, rushing from the receiving rooms from time to time to give her dressmakers opportunities for the necessary trying on of her many new gowns.

A VERY BUSY LADY.

Despite the fact, however, that Princess Mary has devoted so many hours to the receiving of presents, the demands on her time have been so great that hundreds of persons have been obliged to leave their gifts with her secretaries or the palace attendants and to such persons written acknowledgements will be sent.

SENDS CANDLE STICKS.

Among the gifts received today was a pair of silver candlesticks from Rodman Wanamaker of New York, presented for him by Col. George Wood, a personal representative in London Princess Mary thanked Col. Wood and said the candlesticks would be placed among her choicest possessions and would always be greatly treasured.

NATIONAL GUARD ASSOCIATION MEETS

New Orleans, Feb. 27—Many prominent United States army and national guard officers from various states were here to attend the annual convention of the National Guard Associations of the United States and the national adjutant's Association today.

Col. Bennett C. Clark of St. Louis, president of the National Guard Association stated no program had been arranged, but that in all probability the sessions will last through tomorrow.

Brigadier-General Charles Martin of Topeka Kansas, president of the guard association, said approximately twenty five adjutant generals are expected to attend.

POLICE ARREST 5 AS BANDIT BAND

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Two girls and three men arrested by detectives were believed by them to be members of a band of robbers here and persons whom police think are their victims will attempt to identify them today. One of the girls, who gave her name as Vera Drago of Sycamore, Ill., had a pistol in her possession, police said and they believe that either she or the other girl, who said she was Edythe Gillmore of Minneapolis, may be the woman bandit who has been the leader in several holdups and robberies here. The men gave their names as John G. Glenn of Philadelphia and Benjamin Seymour and George Merwin of Chicago.

PETS CARED FOR IN MAN'S WILL

Chillicothe, Ill., Feb. 27—Companions of his loneliness, his dog "Mickey" and his horse "Don" are amply provided for in the will of Joseph Carroll of Chillicothe. The will directs that both animals be given the best care as long as they live, provision for them to be a lien upon his real estate. With this restriction the entire estate of $25,000 was left to his brother George T. Carroll of Fort Atkinson, Wis.

MORSE INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY

Wartime Transactions with Shipping Board Probed.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Indictments against Charles W. Morse, New York ship builder, his three sons, Benjamin, Harry and Ervin, Colin H. Livingstone of Washington, president of the Virginia Ship Building corporation, and seven others were returned today by the federal grand jury which has been investigating the war-time transactions of Morse and some of his associates with the shipping board.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

The conspiracy as charged by the government accuses those named of making false statements as to the value of their plant and assets and thereby obtaining loans from the shipping board. They are also charged with having secured money for ship building purposes and to have used the same for personal interests in the way of improving their plants. It is also alleged that large quantities of material for ship building belonging to the emergency fleet corporation were secured and then sold and the money converted to the use of the alleged conspirators.

Those indicted either were or still are connected with the Groton Iron Works, Groton, Conn., the Virginia Ship Building corporation, Alexandria, Va., or the United States Transport company, Inc., which concerns are known as the Morse companies.

OTHERS HELD.

Others named in the indictments as presented to the District of Columbia supreme court included: R. O. White of New York, former president of the United States Transport company; George M. Burdette of New York; R. M. Much of Augusta, Me.; W. W. Scott, Washington attorney; L. A. Christie of Alexandria, Va.; Nehmiah Campbell of New York and Philipp Rhinehart of Baltimore, former government auditor at the Virginia Ship Building plant.

Two indictments were returned, one charging conspiracy to defraud the government and the other charging conspiracy to commit an offense against the government.

ANETAOIN SHRDLU CMHSETH

ANIMOSITY CAUSE.

Morse in a statement, issued through his attorneys after the indictments had been returned, declared the proceedings against him were the result of "animosity" on the part of Attorney-General Daugherty.

SOCIETY GIRL HIT AS SHE SLEEPS

No Reason Discovered for Attack.

New York, Feb. 27.—Shortly after she had fallen asleep early Sunday on her return from a masquerade party, Miss Dorothy Nichols, 18 year old society girl of Washington Heights, awoke with a scream when an intruder struck her a heavy blow on the head. Her assailant escaped.

The young woman's head was badly cut by the leaden sash weight used by the mysterious prowler, who fled through the window by which he had entered.

MOANS AWAKEN PARENTS.

Her parents, in an adjoining room, later were aroused by their daughter's moans. They found her unconscious. Her life probably was saved, hospital surgeons said, by her thick hair, which she had done up in braids before retiring, and which broke the force of the blow. It was said she would recover.

Mystery was added to the attack by the failure of the assailant to take jewelry and other valuables in plain view on a dresser in the young woman's room.

ALVA MUSSER DIES IN PANA HOSPITAL

Pana, Feb. 27.—Alva Musser, aged 52 of Herrick, Ill., died in the Hubet Memorial hospital Sunday night at 7:30 of softening of the brain.

Besides his wife he leaves one son J. O. Musser of Pana.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

REESE-CASTLE.

It was publicly made known Monday morning that Miss Emma Reese, who has been employed at the Western Union here, and Merton E. Castle, a popular young coal miner of this city were married last Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock by Rev. M. A. Cox on South Park street. The marriage had been rumored but was denied by the young couple, until Monday, when they announced it.

No Objectors Appear on Two New Paving Projects

Oakdale Boulevard to Be Improved and Wabash Avenue to be Resurfaced With Asphalt.

With two street paving public hearings before the city council Monday morning a new record was established by the fact that not a single objector appeared to either one

THREE FOR IT

The paving of Oakdale boulevard with asphalt to a width of forty feet was passed without a single objection being made the project even being supported by three property owners who were present to support the improvement should any objection to it be made As no objection was made these three guardians said nothing and filed silently out after the resolution had been passed and the mayor had assured them that the work would be hastened as much as possible

Oakdale residents wanted the forty-foot pavement because they expect within a reasonable time to see a subway under the Illinois Traction System track into Fairview park on that street which would then be converted into a busy thoroughfare for motorists into and out of the park

SUGGESTS BRICK

When the resolution for the resurfacing of Wabash avenue with asphalt from North Water to North Broadway came up for consideration Miss Patricia Hunt who owns a lot on the north side of that street suggested that she would prefer a brick surface because of the heavy hauling done on that street

A letter was read from the Walrus Manufacturing company suggesting that the improvement be extended another block east along their property where they own three quarters of the property on both sides of the street and the pavement there is in a very bad condition As this particular block is included in another paving project in which a new block brick pavement is specified in the resolution which was passed unanimously Monday morning

Expect to Receive Bids on New Paving by April 1

"It will take most of March for the completion of the necessary court details in the various paving projects" said W H Collins city engineer when asked how soon actual bids could be received for the great amount of work which is being ordered by the city council on its streets of Decatur

"Everything should be out of the way by April 1 or soon thereafter so that bids can be received during that month

TOLEDO MAN TO BID

"We will certainly be here to make bids" said the representative of the Toledo firm who has been here for several days looking into the plans made for the street resurfacing

"And you can say that the bids will be even lower than have been anticipated

Mr Croft the representative of the H P Streicher Co the Toledo firm which resurfaced North Main street north of the Wabash so many years ago also said that there need be no concern about the stability of the old brick streets as a foundation for the new work

DEPENDS ON BINDER COURSE

"If we put on enough of the binder course which consists of broken stone saturated with asphalt so that the street is brought to a perfect surface before the top sheet of one and a half inches of asphalt is applied Decatur will have streets which will last for years We will stand ready to guarantee any work that we may do to be as good five years from the day it is finished as it is that day

"We know absolutely know that this resurfacing work can be done successfully We have been doing it for more than a score of years I have looked into the condition and the foundation the sub drainage of every street which has been ordered improved here and they are all in excellent condition for being resurfaced Good jobs can be done lasting serviceable fine streets can be made of them and the citizens of Decatur will be surprised at the low bids which will be made for the work

OWN REPAIR PLANT

Mr Croft also said that a repair plant large enough to care for the needs of Decatur can be had for $ 00 to $300

Regardless of ordinances which may be passed streets must occasionally be opened A water main breaks a sewer becomes clogged large improvements are planned which make the cutting into pavements unavoidable in spite of all the determination to the contrary

TO HAVE REAL TOWN

"Yes" said Commissioner J W Montgomery who was standing near "and we should simply take out a slab for the necessary excavation have a few barrels of asphalt on hand and really put in an entirely new slab when the trench is properly filled We must have that repair kit when we have the finished streets"

"Gee won't we have some burg here next fall" remarked the mayor as he leaned back in his chair behind his desk "when all these streets are put into shape the whole town really cleaned up in a first class manner with the dam closed and the big lake already formed—say Decatur will be SOME town believe me

WABASH BLOCKED BY FREIGHT WRECK

Most of St. Louis Trains Sent By Detour.

FIREMEN HELP MAN

Send Walter P. Anderson to Hospital.

Wabash passenger traffic between Decatur and St Louis was delayed and detoured most of Sunday afternoon and night due to a pileup of ten cars of coal between Raymond and Honey Bend about 2 30 Sunday afternoon

The accident was due to a broken truck according to the report of Conductor "Honicke" Smith in charge of the train. It was extra No. 2018 north with about seventy cars of coal The ten cars spilled pretty badly completely blocking both mains and tearing up much track The wrecker from Decatur and the terminal wrecker from St Louis were both sent to clear up the wreckage and most of the section men available along the line were also called out

Passenger train No 1 due out of here at 2 25 p m for St Louis was the first caught behind the spill It had reached Morrisonville and was given orders at that point to back up to Morrisonville detouring via the C and I M to Pawnee Junction thence by Illinois Central to Litchfield This same detour route was used for all other passenger trains up until Nos 3 and 6 Monday morning both of these being able to come the regular route This caused a delay of almost two hours to most of these trains

Look After Fireman

Another unfortunate traveler reaching Decatur has had the good luck to fall into the hands of local railroadmen the local Wabash firemen proving the Good Samaritan this time Walter P Anderson who was a Wabash fireman some years ago leaving here in 1910 is the traveler He has been firing on the Union Pacific out of Laramie Wyo and was coming back east to visit his aged parents in McNoel Ill

Reaching Decatur he became ill with pneumonia and went to a local hotel As his condition grew serious the management learning that he was a railroad fireman notified the local firemen's lodge They immediately had Anderson removed to the hospital at their expense His condition there was reported very grave Monday His parents were notified but they are too old and feeble to come to him

Railroad Notes

The announcement of the consolidation of the Missouri Pacific and Texas and Pacific railroads is of considerable interest to local Wabash men as the Wabash handles much business in connection with the M P the Texas and Pacific has about 2800 miles of line with terminals in New Orleans El Paso and Texarkana and the M P has about 7300 miles of line

The condition of G W Bosch Wabash division storekeeper at Decatur who has been in a serious condition in the Wabash hospital here several weeks was reported Monday as unchanged

The Ann Arbor road has announced an embargo on all perishable and live stock on its lines north of Mt Clemens Mich because of weather conditions

Unit assignments made last Saturday in the Wabash division offices here Conductor Fred Smith gets caboose 2233 and Conductor H Wilkins the bumper board job Lloyd chase got the rear brakeman job on the 2206 13th district and John Jenkins the rear on the Clinton layover switch local

Ballard and Johnson restaurants along the Wabash again announce some reductions in some of their prices in most cases the cut being about five cents on the dish According to the management of the Ballard and Johnson this brings the prices back to what they were before the war

Corn went to above the 50 cent area and still there has been no rush by elevators along the line of the Wabash for grain cars at least not the rush that there was a couple of weeks ago Monday's orders at Decatur division offices were for 80 empties

The Illinois Central and Pennsylvania lines traveling over the former's tracks through Decatur again reached the high mark for business through here last Saturday Fifty seven trains passed through the block between the I C depot and South Junction and counting trains starting from here for the northeast north and northwest the train register sheet showed a total of eighty two which is the highest mark for some years

Business still continues heavy on the C I and W enough so that it was again necessary to operate the local between Decatur and Springfield Sunday

FRANCHISE COMES UP WEDNESDAY

Council to Consider D. R. & L. Document.

LE FORGEE IS PRESENT

Van Praag for Complete Rejection.

Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock the franchise proffered by the Decatur Railway & Light Co will be considered by the council as a committee of the whole This was decided upon after C C LeForgee attorney for the company had appeared before the city council Monday morning to say that he would be glad to meet with the council to consider whatever changes, amendments or suggestions might be made by the commissioners to find out what the city of Decatur wanted in the way of a franchise and to start on the negotiations which should lead to an agreement between the two parties interested—the city of Decatur and the street railway company

VAN FOR REJECTION

Following a resolution offered by Commissioner Alex Van Praag that the franchise as offered be returned marked rejected a resolution which received no second the resolution offered by Commissioner Harry Ruthrauff that the whole subject be taken up by the council as a committee of the whole was carried and the first session set for Wednesday morning at nine o'clock

To the suggestion of Commissioner Van Praag that the conference should be open to the public Attorney LeForgee offered no objection saying that there was nothing to be considered of which the public should not have any information that it sought and as far as he was concerned a public conference was entirely agreeable

WESLEYAN LIBRARY PLANS DRAWN HERE

Will Use Tudor Gothic Style Architecture.

Plans for the handsome stone Hiram Buck library memorial building for Illinois Wesleyan university at Bloomington are being drawn by Aschauer & Waggoner, architects of Decatur and they show a beautiful stone building in the Tudor Gothic style of architecture

In the inside the great reading room with its high arched ceiling high Gothic windows and the stone walls lined with book shelves for the books immediately in use by students is the feature of the building The book stacks for holding the main library are on one side of the main building which is largely given up to the reading room

The interior walls of the reading room will be of stone not plaster or wood, and the floors will be of tile or mastic

The exterior shows a dignified building of Bedford stone in the later or Tudor Gothic style

PLENTY WATER AFTER MAY 1

Ruthrauff Looks Up High Water Marks.

When it became apparent that the dam which is to form the new lake could not be closed before or very near May 1 Commissioner Harry Ruthrauff head of the water department began to wonder whether or not there usually was any high water after that date and to his surprise he found that quite frequently high water flood waters in fact do occur in the Sangamon after May 1

1915 August 600 4
1916 January 602 1
1917 June 600 2
1918 February 600 1

TEN FEET HIGHER

It will be seen that the level of the new lake when the flash boards on the crest of the spillway are raised will be ten feet higher than the highest water record within the last seven years

Because the water cannot be shut off from the present intake until there is reasonable certainty that an ample supply can be secured above the dam Mr Ruthrauff was considerably concerned about the loss of the chance to catch the usual spring water He is easier since he looked into the records and finds that there is a good chance for much water after the date set for the closing of the dam

INSULL WANTS REAL PRACTICAL EDUCATION

Chicago Feb 27—Declaring that graduates of the country's technical colleges and universities were 'pitiably handicapped' by lack of practical experience Samuel Insull president of the two companies supplying Chicago with gas and electricity today offered to turn over units of them to college students and high school instructors for operation during the summer months

Mr Insull's offer was made in an address before the National Education Association

"The young college man who comes into a big industry seeking a job today is pitiably handicapped when placed against the practical man who obtained his knowledge in the school of experience" he said "He has nothing but ambition In time his college course will react to his benefit but it has not fitted him for immediate occupation of a real position He has had no practical experience his knowledge is all theory

It is to overcome this that I am placing the two plants at the disposal to a certain extent, of American schools

HIGH PRAISE FOR "BILL" COLLINS

City Engineer Turns in His Resignation.

TO LEAVE ON APRIL 1

Credited with Street Paving Program.

Bouquets came thick and fast to W H Collins city engineer following the presentation to the city council Monday morning of his formal resignation as consulting city engineer the resignation to take effect April 1

MAYOR CONGRATULATES

Mayor Borchers took occasion to congratulate him on his future prospects through going into business with a reputable well known contractor along lines with which he is familiar Mr Collins will enter into a partnership with Forrest Ilale) While Mr Borchers regretted exceedingly the loss to the city of such a capable and conscientious public servant he could not help but feel that as a young man Mr Collins was taking the right step in looking toward the future

"I would like to have had him stay with city" said the mayor "to finish the large number of projects under way and to come this year but I cannot help but feel that he is doing the wise thing from his standpoint He could not afford to do otherwise"

PLANNED PAVING PROGRAM

"Mr Collins has been very conscientious and he has shown that he has a backbone in his body" said Commissioner J W Montgomery "It is not too much to say that the great program of street improvements which are being put through and which will be put through was made possible by the confidence which the members of the city council and the citizens of Decatur had in Mr Collins We may get an engineer as good but he will have to go some to beat Bill"

SAYS HE IS BEST

"I have worked with all the city engineers of Decatur for many years" said Harry Ruthrauff, Decatur's veteran head of the water department "and I can say that Decatur never had a better, I doubt if it ever before has had as good an engineer as 'Bill' He certainly is one of the best if not THE best this city ever had"

PROUD OF WORK

"We are proud of the work done by Mr Collins" said Commissioner Van Praag and Commissioner J F Fites expressed the same good wishes and sentiments as the others

The resignation was accepted with a vote of thanks attached to the resolution

DOUKHOBOURS DENY MASSACRE POLICY

Claim Death for Aged and Children Theory.

Nelson B C Feb 27—The Doukhobours of Canada otherwise known as the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood merely expressed a theoretical advocacy of massacre of their children and aged, according to the explanation now offered by Peter Veregin president of the band in a letter to the Daily News here In his letter he expresses some alarm at the apparent indignation of Canadians over the announcement of the sect, some days ago that the members were contemplating migration to escape taxation in which event it might be found necessary to kill off children and aged persons who impeded the progress of the wanderers

APOLOGIZE TO PUBLIC.

After apologizing to the Canadian public particularly the women the Doukhobour chieftain explains that the children of the colony on the verge of starvation being deprived of milk through the forced sale of cows in 1920 for the payment of taxes He protests against income tax collections totalling $4 000 claiming earnings of individual members to be within exemption limits

The letter concludes with a plea for official inquiry to the end that the Doukhobour be reimbursed for the roads they have built, and asks for a $50 000 loan to be spent in irrigation
